IMPROVEMENT IN COAL CONDITIONS RESULT OF ORDER

Fuel Now in Transit for Seacoast More Than Sufficient for Needs

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19. — A steady flow of coal into famine stricken districts of the east was reported tonight by Fuel Administrator Garfield in a statement setting forth the results of the first two days operation of the government's five day fuel restriction order. The statement summarizing the first definite reports from state fuel administrators declares that coal is reaching consumers in territory where the need has been the greatest and that the people "are getting warm."

For the first time in many weeks the statement sets forth coal in transit for the seacoast is more than sufficient for the needs.

With the assistance of the shipping board and the railroad administration Dr. Garfield prepared to have pooled barge facilities in New York and other Atlantic ports to expedite the movement of coal aboard ships waiting to sail. At the same time he ordered that bunkering go on thruout Sunday at both New York and Hampton Roads.

Generally improved transportation conditions, Dr. Garfield said were attending enforcement of the order.

"The spirit of co-operation," he said, "showed plainly in the many telegrams received. They said the order would be complied with in spirit and in fact, that manufacturing would be halted and that merchandise would be kept off crowded railroads."

At the request of Dr. Garfield, Director-General of Railroads McAdoo issued an order today putting an embargo on the use of open top cars except for fuel shipments. This order, officials said, is one of the most important yet issued for the purpose of increasing the movement of coal. At the office of the national coal association it was said that the order and the five days suspension of industry probably would relieve the car shortage enabling the mines to greatly increase production.

Director-General McAdoo received suggestions today that passengers schedules be curtailed sharply in order to provide more motive power for coal trains, but he took no definite action. The initiative in this temporarily would be left to executives who are in closer touch with passenger needs it was explained.

Officials predicted freely however, that within the next ten days most roads would find it advantageous to eliminate some passenger trains.

Open Monday, Not Tuesday.

The only important change in the closing order made today was a ruling permitting all places of amusement to remain open on the Monday holidays and close on Tuesdays instead. A large number of industrial plants were added to the war and navy department's exemption list, but the names of none were made public. A special effort was made today to provide ships with bunker coal and Fuel Administrator Garfield arranged with Chairman Hurley of the shipping board, to pool tugs and barges in each Atlantic port where vessels are held to expedite the work.

Pooling was suggested by A. H. Smith, assistant director-general of railroads who declared some piers supplied with coal had no barges to transport it and that others with no coal on hand were supplied with barges.

Reports from New York said that thirteen ships were bunkered there today despite heavy ice that interfered with barge movement. Railroad officials reported that coal was moving much more freely to the piers and that it now was a question only of getting it abroad ships. Men will be kept hard at work all day tomorrow in the principal Atlantic ports keeping the coal moving.

A new danger threatened the coal output today. Empty cars began to reach the chief bituminous mining regions in diminishing numbers. This was due it was said in part to delay attending the diversion of coal from industries closed down to those permitted to run. In most of the big industrial centers switching work was almost doubled and consequently there was considerable confusion in distributing the coal that arrived.

Issues Statement.

Fuel Administrator Garfield tonight issued a statement on the general situation in which he said:

"The general compliance and almost complete enforcemnt of the fuel administration regulation curtailing industrial use of fuel were reported to the United States fuel administration today. Local officials of the fuel administration thruout the east reported that the order was generally effective.

"Railroad officials co-operating with the fuel administration reported genrally improved transportation conditions in the east part of the country. Improvement was also noted in the central west, despite the continued zero weather which has been impeding railroad operations.

"Reports direct to the fuel administration showed that coal in transit consigned to or already arrived at tidewater points for the bunkering of ships destined to American forces in Europe and to nations associated with the United States in the war were today more than sufficient to bunker the ships now in port.

"Telegrams from county administrators in Indiana, Illinois, Ohio and Mississippi Valley states contained the information that 'this part of the country is getting warm.' This was taken to mean that quantities of coal held back by reason of the congested condition of the railroads were now getting thru to consignees."

COUPLE HELD FOR CHILD'S DEATH

Bruises Found on Body of 14 Months Old Baby Believed Responsible for Its Death.

Champaign, Ill., Jan. 19.—Charged with the murder of 14 months old Wilford LeRoy Chesley, Goldie Chesley, the child's mother, aged 19, and Walter Robbins, aged 35, for whom the woman kept house were placed in the county jail in Urbana late this afternoon. The crime, it is asserted, was committed near Homer, southeast of here.

Arrests of the couple were ordered by Coroner John V. Searingen at the inquest held at Homer this morning. A formal charge of murder had not been preferred however, until several hours after the man and woman had been brought to Urbana for further investigation.

A post mortem examination held at Homer today according to a report sent State's Attorney L. A. Busch revealed that the death of the child was primarily the result of various bruises found on the body. A secondary cause was septic pneumonia which however, it was stated, resulted directly from bruises inflicted on the little body.

Goldie Chesley, the mother, in a statement to the state's attorney, accused Robbins of having made the bruises that resulted in the child's death. At the inquest she had denied any knowledge of how the bruises might have been made. Finger prints on the child's body are to be photographed tomorrow, and in this manner it is expected to learn who is responsible for the bruise.

ITALIAN STATEMENT

Rome, Jan. 19.—The statement issued by the war office today says:

"On Thursday night the enemy on a wide front again attempted an attack of our bridgehead at Capo Silo. He was arrested by our artillery which promptly intervened and a few hostile groups of men who succeeded in reaching our wire were destroyed by machine gun and rifle fire.

"The artillery was more active yesterday on both banks of the Brenta and in the eastern sector of Montello. Our reconnoitering parties drove back small enemy posts and captured material on the Asiago plateau."

TO PRESS FERRISS BILL

Washington, Jan. 19 —Secretaries Lane and Daniels, Attorney General Gregory, Chairman Ferris, of the house public lands committee and Representative Lenroot, ranking Republican on that committee, conferred today over oil leasing legislation and it was virtually agreed to press the Ferriss bill with an amendment agreed upon at a recent white house conference to clarify the oil lease situation on withdrawn public lands.

COMFORT ASSURED

New York. Jan. 19.—Comfort of the city's homes and workers in essential industries was assured today with arrival in the city of 35,000 tons of fuel, backed by an increasing amount at tidewater terminals and on the way from the mines. With about 40,000 industrial establishments closed the supply was considered ample.

FIX WHOLESALE PRICES

Washington, Jan. 19.—Wholesale prices for storage creamery butter at New York and Chicago wer fixed today by the food administration. That at New York is 47 cents a pound for the remainder of the season which ends in about two months. A price of 45½ cents a pound will prevail in Chicago until February

FOR HOLIDAY CROWDS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19. Theaters and other places of public amusement won their fight for an amendment to the fuel administration's Monday closing order and got permission to close on Tuesdays instead. The change was made after strong pressure was brought to bear on the fuel administration by New York theatrical interests. All places of amusement are covered in the exemption including theaters, moving picture houses, bowling alleys, billiard rooms and private and public dance halls.

The change in ruling regarding amusement places according to a statement given out by the fuel administration was to accommodate holiday crowds who will be idle because of the Monday general closing order.

UNITED MINE WORKERS RATIFY WAGE AGREEMENT

Action of Great Importance To Country in Present Crisis

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 19.—After two days of stirring debate United Mine Workers of America in biennial convention late today by overwhelming vote ratified the Washington agreement of Oct. 6, which grants substantial wage advances to bituminous coal miners and provides penalties for violation of contracts. The agreement became effective Nov. 1, last, and remains in force until April 1, 1920, unless the war ends before that date in which event it automatically terminates.

The ratification of the agreement was of great importance to the country in the present crisis for the reason that had it failed of approval it might have resulted in chaos in the mining industry at a time when every nerve is being strained to relieve the fuel famine.

The fight against its approval was based on the automatic penalty clause inserted by the joint conference of operators and miners at Washington and approved by Fuel Administrator Garfield. It fines men who violate contracts by going out on unauthorized strikes and provides for their automatic collection by the operators. Mine owners failing to enforce the clause are also penalized under its terms.

John P. White, former president of the organization and now assistant to Dr. Garfield spoke for an hour in defense of the action of the international officers in accepting the clause. He severely arraigned Alex Howat, president of the Kansas miners who led the opposition and was backed up by Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois Miners, John H. Walker, president of the Illinois Federation of Labor and William Green, Ohio, secretary-treasurer.

Farrington declared the rank and file of the organization were anxious to honorably discharge their duties to the union and that conservative men want to be protected from the radical elements who start "wild cat" or unauthorized strikes. He told of the operations of a penalty clause in Illinois and said that in every instance where men were unjustly fined they were remitted thru the regular machinery of the miners union.

Walker said the greatest disaster that could come upon the organization would be repudiation of the agreement at this time and thus put the miners on record before the country as not willing to punish men for violating contracts. He appealed to the delegates not to hamper the government in backing up the "boys in the trenches" by interfering with their coal supply.

On a rising vote the whole agreement was adopted by an overwhelming majority.

Delegates who spoke against the agreement today were W. P. Pasco of Illinois who said the penalty clause was an insult to the intelligence of the miners, Charles Findley Michigan and D. A. Crampton, president of the Missouri miners who said he was against the penalty clause but as it was linked with the wage increase he felt compelled to vote for it.

Charles O'Neill, Central Pennsylvania spoke for the clause as also did James Doyle of Arkansas.

The convention adjourned until Monday.

WILL ABANDON MEET

Chicago. Jan. 19.—The directors of the Western Golf association at the annual meeting tonight decided to abandon the championship meet for 1918 owing to war conditions and to hold a patriotic tournament in order to sustain active interest in the game as suggested by President Wilson. The directors recommend that the tournament be held under such conditions as might be determined by the directors later and that those that participaed should be 49 years or more. This age limit was recommended subject to revision down to 35 years. An entry fee of $3 and an assessment of five cents a stroke in qualifying rounds will be given to some worthy charity. No expensive prizes will be awarded.

BERLIN REPORT

Berlin. Jan. 19.—Via London—British Admiralty per Wireless Press—The official report from general headquarters today follows:

"Western Theater: There were lively artillery duels in the salient northeast of Ypres, on the south bank of the Scarpe river and in the neighborhood of Moeuvres. In many parts of the rest of the front especially on both sides of the Meuse river the firing activity increased. North of Bezonvaux our storming troops took prisoners from the French line.

"Eastern Theater and Italian front: The situation was unchanged.

"Macedonian front: In the Cerna Bend our hill position northeast of Paralovo was subjected thruout the day to artillery and mine firing."

GENERAL MANAGER RESIGNS

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 19.—Announcement was made today that E. B. Lilley, had resigned as general manager of the St. Louis Republic. M. D. Lynn, advertising manager of the Republic succeeds Mr. Lilley.

War News Summarized

The long waited convening of the constituent assembly has apparently precipitated a fresh crisis in Russian affairs with renewed disorders as the consequence of a struggle for control in the capital indicated as a possibility The Bolsheviki evidently are not taking kindly to the legislative body in which the very first vote of the opening session on Friday revealed an anti-Bolsheviki majority which easily elected its candidate for chairman—244 to 151—and this without the help if the constitutional Democrats who were not present. The Bolshevik and their supporters the extreme Social Revolutionists thereupon withdrew from the assembly.

This break with the majority social revolutionists who showed their control by electing as chairman of their leaders, M. Tchernoff, minister of agriculture in the Kerensky government, is interpreted as a probable prelude to an attempt on the part of the Bolsheviki government to assert itself in supreme control regardless of what course the present assembly may desire to take. The forcible dissolution of the assembly or of its re-organization as a Bolsheviki body are among the possible courses forecast.

Meanwhile the peace conference proceedings at Brest-Litovsk have again been suspended and Foreign Minister Trotzky is reported to have returned to Petrograd on Thursday night. Opinion among foreign observers in Petrograd seems to be that the negotiations are working their way to a final break and fall of the price of the German mark in neutral markets is pointed to as an indication of loss of confidence among the neutrals that the parleys would culminate in any agreement.

The sticking point, it is clear from even the German acounts, remains the continued declination of the central powers to withdraw all their troops from the occupied regions of Russia and their uncertain attitude regarding the return of the deported population before the question self-determination is put. The Russians apparently are sticking just as firmly as ever to their demands along these lines.

Only one spot on the military map is showing any activity out of the ordinary for mid-winter the right flank of the Italian front, on the lower reaches of the Piave. Here the Austrians have made a further effort to drive into the Italian lines near Capo Silo and wedge their way further towards Venice. The latest assaults appears to have been no more successful thatn the other recent efforts, the Italians meeting the enemy with a devastating artillery fire and wiping out with machine guns and rifles the few detachments that succedded in getting across no man's land to the defense barricades.

NO PLAYER LIMIT IN AMERICAN LEAGUE

Action Taken to Protect Club Owners Who Face Loss of Players Thru Selective Draft Law.

Chicago. Jan. 1.—Abolition of the player limit in the American League was announced by President Ban Johnson tonight. This action was necessary it was said to protect the club owners who face the danger of losing several players in the next draft for military service. Hhe was advised that three members of the Cleveland club—Roth, Harris and Klepfer—had been placed in Class 1.

Under the new rulings the clubs will unrestricted in the number of players they may carry. In previous years the clubs were obliged to slash their roster to twenty-five men on May 1. President Johnson said he understood the National League would take similar action.

"We are in a peculiar position of not knowing what will happen in the next draft," he said, "and it seemed a bad idea to keep in effect a ruling which was made for conditions unlike those prevailing at this time. We will not enforce the rule next season."

The American League executive accompanied by his secretary, William Parridge, left tonight for Washington, to attend the conference with federal officials on Monday in regard to adopting a method for collecting the federal war tax. The meeting to draft the 1918 schedules of the major leagues, scheduled to be held in the capital on Tuesday, will be held in Pittsburgh either on Tuesday or Wednesday, he said. The change was made because of the illness of Barney Dreyfuss, president of the Pittsburgh club and one of the National League representatives on the schedule committee.

MOTOR MECHANICS WANTED IN FRANCE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—General Pershing today sent word that the Motor Mechanics Regiment being recruited by the United States public service reserve is wanted in France immediately.

As a result the reserve today issued a call for all skilled artisans, between the ages of 18 and 20 and between 31 and 40 to apply at once to any army recruiting station if they wish to aid their country defeat Germany in the air.

A total of 7,000 trained men is needed for the aviation corps, to assemble planes and put them in trim after air duels. General Pershing has asked for 3,500 automobile and gas engine men, 1,400 machinists, 500 cabinet workers, 450 sheet metal workers and lesser numbers of blacksmith forgers, canvass workers, wheelwrights, chauffeurs, cooks, painters, harness makers and acetylene welders.

M'ADOO EXPLAINS OPERATION OF U. S. RAILWAY CONTROL

Director General Urges Speedy Passage of Administration Bill

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Director-General McAdoo today explained to the senate interstate commerce commission the operation of government control of railroads and urged speedy passage of the administration railroad bill by congress in order to clarify the financial situation so as to permit the floating of $10,000,000 in bonds by the government by the end of the present fiscal year. He also asserted that government operation would be extended to canals and inland waterways if it was considered necessary. Mr. McAdoo said the present railroad organization would continue to be employed as long as they are satisfactory.

"I don't feel that the government ought to employ anybody who isn't necessary," he declared, "but I feel that we should not disintegrate the railroad organizations until congress has decided the future of the railroads."

Questioned regarding the necessity for government control, Mr. McAdoo said it was made necessary by the railroads lack of facilities to handle increased war traffic and their failure properly to co-ordinate. Disclaiming any intention to censure the carriers he said blame for not meeting the transportation situation rested upon them because of their failure to increase their facilities in 1916 and 1917. In those years he said, they spent less for improvements than in previous years despite increased traffic.

Mr. McAdoo urged that the appropriation of $500,000,000 in the bill be retained to enable the government to increase facilities or to make good deficiencies altho he hoped it would not be necessary to use the money for this purpose.

WISCONSIN EDITOR QUIZZED BY ATTORNEY

Answered Questions Submitted by Senator LaFollette's Lawyer.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 19.—Richard Lloyd Jones, editor of the Wisconsin State Journal today appeared before Judge J. C. Hoppman and answered questions submitted by Walter G. Corrigan, attorney for Senator LaFollette in connection with a suit LaFollette is bringing here.

The following is taken from the court reporter's report of this morning's session before Judge Hoppman:

Referring back to editorials written by you and put in the State Journal which we discussed yesterday at the time that you were writing them and put them in your paper did you intend to convey to your readers the idea that LaFollette was dishonest?" asked Mr. Corigan.

"No," replied Mr. Jones.

"Did you intend to convey to your readers by any of them that he was pro-German?" asked Mr. Corrigan.

"Pro-German to the extent that the work he did was pleasing to the German forces," replied Mr. Jones.

"Did you mean to convey in any way in the editorials that he had retainers from German interests?" asked Mr. Corrigan.

"No," replied Mr. Jones.

"Did you intend to convey in idea in any editorial that LaFollette was disloyel?" asked Mr. Corrigan.

"No, except that his work tended to weaken our national defenses."

"Did you intend to convey the idea that he had made disloyel utterances?"

"Not as such, no."

"Did you intend to convey idea to readers that he was a traitor to his country?"

To this Mr. Jones replied that he did not.

RIGHT OF GERMAN EMPEROR PARAMOUNT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—The right of the German emperor to the exclusive making of war or peace has been reaffirmed in the Prussian chamber of lords in the adoption of a resolution presented by Berlin representatives said a dispatch today from Berne. As quoted in the dispatch the resolution said:

"The chamber of lords firmly hopes that when peace is concluded the government will see that the rights of the emperor of Germany are safeguarded. These rights are conceded to him by the constitution and peace should be commensurate with the sacrifices which have been made for the political and economic interests of the country."

Accompanying the resolution was this commentary:

"The President of the United States has asked if the German negotiations at Brest-Litovsk are in the name of the majority of the reichstag or in the name of the military party. For our part we affirm that it is the German emperor who in the terms of the constitution has the exclusive right to make war and peace."

FORMER REPRESENTATIVE DIES

New Orleans, La., Jan. 19.—Charles Francis Buck, grand prior supreme council of the Masonic lodge and former member of congress from Louisiana, died at his home here today from a general break down.

AUSTRIAN SOCIALISTS HOLD MEETINGS

Reports of Frequnt Demonstrations Acquire New Significance.

Stockholm, Jan. 19.—By the Associated Press—Reports of strikes and other demonstrations in Austria which the Austrian government has permitted to be telegraphed abroad acquire new significance when read in connection with the Vienna Arbieter Zeitung's report of the five Socialist meetings held in Vienna Sunday. The meetings which were attended by vast numbers of persons, protested against "robbing the Austrian people of all influence in the peace negotiations by continual postponing the meetings of the chamebr of deputies and the delegates and by suppressing all criticism in the press of Germany's and Austria's foreign policy."

The meetings demanded that the peace negotiations at Brest-Litovsk be conducted in a friendly spirit, "that the government reject all efforts toward open or veiled annexations and that it reject the demand that Russia's border nations 'right of self determination' be rendered illusory and also reject the desire to annex portions of these lands against the will of the inhabitants."

The Socialists also demanded that the people of Poland, Lithuania and Courland be permitted to vote freely on the question on the form of their state and their allegiance.

A resolution adopted by the meetings further declared that the Socialists regard the peace program of Premier Lloyd-George and President Wilson as a sign that even the enemy nations can be forced by the laboring classes to modify their imperialistic aims. The resolution in conclusion protested against the systematic misrepresentations of these utterances in the entire bourgoise.

PRESIDENT CREATES ADVERTISING DIVISION

May Render More Effective Patriotic Services Volunteered by Advertising Men.

Washington, Jan. 19.—Definite assignment of the part national advertising forces are to take in the task of winning the war was given in an order issued by President Wilson today creating the division of advertising of the committee on public information. It is believed that thru this agency the patriotic services volunteered by advertising men thruout the United States since the outbreak of the war may be rendered even more effective.

President Wilson's order reads:

"I hereby create under the jurisdiction of the committee on public information heretofore established by executive order of April 15, 1917, a division of advertising for the purpose of receiving and directing thru the proper channels the generous efforts of the advertising forces of the nation to support the effort of the government to inform public opinion properly and accurately."

Thru the division of advertising it is proposed to perfect publicity machinery which may be called into service when campaigns of a national character are necessitated by war conditions. A board of five members which has already established executive offices in New York city has been named by Chairman Creel of the committee on public information to direct the activities of the new division.

The board members are:

William H. Johns, president of the American Association of Advertising Agencies; W. C. D'Arcy, president of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, which has a membership of 19,000; O. C. Harn of the National Advertisers' Commission of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World; Herbert S. Houston, former president of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World and L. B. Jones, president of the association of National Advertisers.

Chairman Johns relative to the plan and scope of the work that the division expects to accomplish said:

"In a broad sense we shall act as a national advertising agency. We shall not displace any government advertising committee."

ANOTHER BLIZZAR DRAGING

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 19.—Rail traffic in the west is threatened with the same dose that recently paralyzed the eastern lines because of a heavy snow storm in progress in Western Nebraska, Colorado, Wyoming and Montana.

The situation is worse in Northern Wyoming and Montana. Along the main line of the Burlington railroad snow from twelve to twenty inches had fallen at noon today and was still falling.

SAILS FOR ORIENT

A Pacific Port. Jan. 19.—Dr. Aimuro Sato, Japanse ambassador to the United States sailed today for the orient having been called called home to Tokio recently. Before he boarded the vessel he said he hoped to return to Washington in the near future.

WILSON DISCUSSES WAR CABINET WITH SECRETARY BAKER

Also Studies Proposed Legislation Creating Munitions Director

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—President Wilson and Secretary Baker today began studying the senate military committee's proposed legislation to establish a war cabinet of three men to assist the president in controlling general direction of the war and to create a director of munitions.

In preliminary discussion of the war cabinet proposal today with Secretary Baker the president while withholding final judgment was represented as not being favorably disposed to the plan because of the belief that it might embarass his personal direction of war activities.

As it is to be introduced Monday in the senate by Chairman Chamberlain the measure provides for the establishment of a war cabinet of three men distinguished in business, executive, administration and public affairs and not members of the president's present cabinet. They would receive salaries of $12,000 a year the same as those of the president's cabinet, but would rank above the executive cabinet in power for control of war policies.

The measure appropriates $500,000 to start the war cabinet in its work.

A definite statement of the president's final views is expected within a few days. Senate committee members, Democrats and Republicans alike, are insistent upon adoption of the general war cabinet plan.

They declare they will proceed with the legislation even if administration approval is withheld, and express confidence of its adoption by the senate and probably the house despite opposition by the president.

RUSSIAN SITUATION ENTERING NEW PHASE

LONDON, Jan. 19.—The Russian situation apparently is entering a new phase. The Bolsheviki have withdrawn from the constituent assembly their next step probably will be an attempt to assert their supreme control of affairs. They may dissolve the assembly forcibly, or reorganize it to give themselves the mastery.

The next reports from Petrograd may tell of more fighting among the factions.

The Bolsheviki authorities in Petrograd received a reply yesterday from the Roumanian government denying the allegations contained in the Bolsheviki note to Roumania according to an Exchange Telegraph despatch from Petrograd under Friday's date.

Premier Lenine, adds the despatch, considered the reply unsatisfactory. He sent copies of it to foreign Minister Trotzky and Ensign Krylenko, the army commander.

NO REFLECTION ON HOLLAND

Washington, Jan. 19.—In commandeering 1,000 machine guns and 100,000,000 cartridges ordered in this country by the Dutch government, the United States, it was explained today, had no intention of casting any reflection upon the good faith of Holland. To meet a military emergency in Europe the guns and cartridges were commandeered by the United States and despatched to one of the allied armies in conformity with international law.

OTIS WINS MATCH.

Havana, Jan. 19.—Charles Otis of Brooklyn defeated Paimundo Campanioni, the Cuban champion in the third and final block of their three cushion billiard match here tonight. Tonight's scores: Otis, innings 68; points 50; high run 4. Campanioni, innings 67; points 36; high run 4. Final score; Otis 15; Campanioni 117.

NEED WOMEN OPERATORS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19. The signal corps needs women telephone operators between 23 and 35 years old, who are in good health and speak French and English fluently. Experienced operators are preferred. Salaries range from $60 to $125 a month with rations and quarters, the same as received by army nurses.

Units of women operators to be sent abroad will wear distinctive uniforms and be considered from a military standpoint as in a similar position to the members of the British woman's auxiliary corps. Wives of army officers and enlisted men in Europe or about to go will not be accepted.

A man is surely up against it when he is given the alternative of being out of coal or out of work.

The people are learning that being at war touches them individually and at many places. Yet it looks like some are finding a way to turn the troubles to their own profit.

British labor declares the war should only end when militarism is defeated. That would be a welcome ending.

The East St. Louis Journal says that over "500 cars of the black diamond have, for over a week, been standing on side tracks between this city and Carbondale. It is strange that such things can be."

Would it not have been well to have used McAdoo as a shock absorber in the present crisis, and put the matter up to the transportation department

The chaplain of the house of representatives opened congress recently by praying that the nation be united "in the bonds of patriotism." Did he mean liberty bonds?

FAR TOO MANY OFFICIALS.

New York Telegram: With coal enough in the mines to last hundreds of years, plenty of labor and no wage or other trouble to hinder, the shortage complained of must be deemed artificial by the layman.

Too many officials running around in circles falling over and hampering one another is believed to be the trouble.

Railroads, coal pools, utilities commissions, fuel administrators of all imaginable degrees and officialdom generally are represented on the priority board but who is representing the consumer is not clear.

Here is a Gordian knot to be cut. Send on some one with common sense, good nerve and a snickersnee.

GREAT SUCCESS OF CLERGY PENSION FUND.

Reports from fourteen religious bodies show that campaigns to provide better salaries for ministers, and old age pension funds in some form, are meeting with a success far beyond expectation. Indications point to a sum well toward $75,000,000 being secured to back these pension systems. Three years ago, when most of the plans were launched, $50,000,000 was talked of but it is found that campaigns which are started vigorously go far beyond the goals aimed at, so that the larger sum named seems likely to be the total realized by all bodies. The Episcopal plan, starting out for $5,000,000, has gathered in nearly $9,000,000. Methodist plans call for $15,000,000, and are maturing with the full sum realized. In fact, $20,000,000 is expected to be exceeded. Presbyterian plans originally called for $10,000,000, but will go to $15,000,000. Now smaller bodies are beginning to talk pensions, and some are preparing to launch campaigns.

STRICT COMPLIANCE WITH ORDER

As usual the first shock over the people are now thinking that the fuel order is not so bad after all. At any rate there is no question about the order being observed with strictness and to th letter. No matter how much people protest about the drastic rule, they carry with them the willingness to make the best of the situation and to remember that we are at war. Then there is that other fact that nobody feels just like tempting the government to assess a $5000 fine for failure to comply with the order.

After all conditions of the rules have been met and the situation as to coal and freight relieved perhaps a business man of large caliber, with known and tried executive ability may make his appearance in the fuel administration department.

THE PNEUMONIA DANGER.

The record of the Jacksonville city health department shows that during the past year pneumonia has really been a greater enemy to the community than has tuberculosis. The deaths which have occurred from pneumonia were 82 while 68 were caused by tuberculosis. No doubt the record during a period of years would not show the same comparison, but nevertheless the ravages of pneumonia are alarming. Perhaps it will take some new type of Red Cross seals and anti-pneumonia societies to arouse a degree of enthusiasm that will result in a general awakening to the pneumonia danger.

OVERDOING PUBLICITY.

Just about the best thing that could happen to Washington just now is pen paralysis. This applies to the various governmental departments that are working over time to send out in the mails a vast amount of publicity matter. Occasionally something is sent which is timely and of value while but by far the larger percentage of this subject matter is worse than useless.

The public is paying for the writing and transportation of tons of matter which finds its way only into waste baskets. For the government to preach thrift and economy and then to send out such quantities of this printed matter, means failure to practice either thrift or economy. "Smyrna Figs can be grown Profitably in the South" and "Possible Reserve of Antimony in the Arabic District of Humboldt County, Nevada," are samples of the matter which is constantly forwarded to the newspapers of the country.

PRICES LOWER BUT MUST END PROFITEERING.

As figured out by Milton Bronner, prices have been dropping since last May, when the apex was reached before the food administration under Herbert Hoover got in its work.

Official food experts, however, hold out little hope of further reductions. They lay the present conditions to co-operation between food dealers cutting out of speculation, and handling of the wheat, flour, pork and sugar situations. All that can be done now, they say, is to cut out wartime profiteering.

That we are still the most favored nation is shown by these comparisons: The increase in food prices in Germany is 120 per cent; in England 105 per cent; in Canada 60 per cent. In this country it was 50 per cent last May and now it is about 40.

During our civil war the markets of the world were open to us. At present we are the market of the world, which looks to us for food. Despite the difference, the prices in civil war days, when profiteers were allowed full sing, are comparatively much higher.

During the civil war wheat jumped from 94 cents to $2.15 a bushel; butter from 15.4 cents to 55 cents; flour from $8.35 to $17 a barrel; sugar from 8.7 cents to 30 cents a pound; potatoes from $2 to $4 a bushel; lard from 8.8 cents to 24.5 cents a pound; bacon from 5.5 cents to 15.9 cents a pound; cheese from 7.8 cents a pound to 25 cents; hogs per 100 pounds from $4.88 to $15.60. Other prices were in similar proportion.

If we started with our pre-war prices and figured what our food would cost us if it went up in proportion to civil war prices, it would be something like this: Wheat, $4.32 a bushel; hogs, for 100 pounds, $47.63; butter, $1.76 a pound; cheese, $1 a pound; flour $23.58 a barrel; lard, 50 cents a pound; bacon, 65 cents a pound; sugar, 29 cents a pound; potatoes, $5.43 a bushel.

Rippling Rhymes

AMERICANS FOR REVENUE

Men come from every foreign land to freedom's kindly shore, and when they reach our well-known strand, they bear their yokes no more. They come, with us to work and live, to share our soup and prunes, enjoying all we have to give, our bulwarks and our boons. They seldom have nine dollars' worth of assets when they land, but in this fairest land on earth they get the cordial hand. "Come in," we say, with winning smile, "and make yourselves at home; take off your things and stay awhile, and use our fine-tooth comb." 'Tis strange that any hyphenated skate can for an hour forget how he was welcomed at our gate, and made a housesold pet. Our house is now beset by foes, and all who dwell within should long to twist the foeman's nose, and spoil his lardboard shin. Yet some there are who ate our pies, and drank our boneset tea, who do not loyally arise to ply a snickersnee. They do not bravely lend a hand to guard our threatened door, but stand up for the Fatherland that shooed them from its shore. I'd like to see such ingrates shipped back to their native soil, to see their friends and kindred whipped, their ruler boiled in oil.

WARNING

Water consumers must use less water if the city averts real calamity. The reservoir is empty and the fire danger great. Cut down use or all water must be shut off.

AMUSEMENT PLACES REMAIN OPEN MONDAY

As will be noted in the dispatches and from the announcements of local theatres, the fuel administrator's order with reference to places of amusement was changed Saturday. By the new order theaters, moving picture houses, billiard halls an all places of amusement may remain open Monday but must close Tuesday.

Evidently it is the purpose of the department to make it possible for persons who are observing Monday as a holiday to have opportunity for recreation. Local picture managers had planned to close and Manager Johnson of the Grand was expecting to cancel "So Long Letty," booked for the Grand Monday night. However, the new ruling changed all this and the Monday program will proceed as originally announced.

RETURN FROM WESTERN TRIP.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Lippincott returned to the city last evening after a five weeks' sojourn in Arizona and California. They report a very delightful trip, experiencing very little disagreeable weather, and state that for the most part the weather conditions were very pleasant, especially when compared to conditions which have existed in Illinois in recent weeks.

WILL ADDRESS RED CROSS MEETING.

Rev. Myron L. Pontius, pastor of Central Christian church will go to Chandlerville this afternoon and this evening will address a union meeting of all the churches of Chandlerville in behalf of the Red Cross. Mr. Pontius has evinced a great interest in Red Cross work and is in much demand for addresses in various parts of the state.

POTATO SUPPER OR LUNCHEON DISHES

Give Potatoes a More Prominent Place in Luncheon Bills of Fare, Says U. S. Department of Agriculture—This Season's Crop of Tubers Unusually Large.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 17.—The eating of more potatoes for supper, or for luncheon if the family is accustomed to have dinner at night, is a suggestion of the United States Department of Agriculture, in order that the tremendous crop of tubers produced in the United States this year may be utilized as fully as possible and spoilage avoided. Such increased use should, at the same time bring about a saving of grain since one common result of eating more potatoes is the eating of less wheat bread, which is a reasonable suggestion when one remembers that both of them are used as a source of starch in the diet. This reduction in grain consumption is desirable, the department points out, and there is great need of grain for shipment to our soldiers and to the soldiers and civilions of other countries engaged with us in the war against Germany.

The use of more potatoes for luncheon should be a simple matter, in the opinion of specialists of the Department of Agriculture, since practically all Americans like potatoes and since there are numerous ways in which the tubers may be prepared to avoid a sameness in the diet. Potatoes, even in their simplest forms—baked and boiled—make good lunchean dishes. They may also be used for making a variety of dishes, such as creamed and escalloped potatoes, with or without cheese; stuffed potatoes; potato croquettes, and so on. Combination dishes, such as hash, stews, meat pies with potato crust, and so on, in which a considerable amount of potatoes is used with other foods, may constitute practically an entire luncheon, being hearty enough to serve for the purpose with a little salad or fruit or sweets.

The following recipes for potato dishes are a few of the many which the housewife will find useful in preparing supper or luncheon:

Panned Potatoes.

Cut boiled potatoes into quarter-inch slices; dredge lightly with flour and fry in pan with a little butter. When light brown, heap on side of pan; let stand a few minutes, then loosen with a knife and turn out on a platter in much the same way that an omelet is taken out. Sprinkle with sale and serve at once.

Potato and Pork Stew.

3 or 4 slices salt pork cut in small pieces, 4 medium sized potatoes, 1 onion, 1-2 cup water, 3-4 teaspoon salt, 1-4 teaspoon pepper.

Fry the pork in a deep frying pan until it is light brown; then to the pork and fat add the potatoes cut in 1-2 inch slices, and thinly sliced onion and seasonings. Add the water, cover closely and cook until the potatoes and onions are soft. The mixture should be stirred occasionally in order that the pork and vegetables may be thoroly mixed. The "stew," as it was called in old times—for it is an old fashioned dish—should be moist but not thin.

Scalloped Potatoes.

Wash and pare potatoes; let them soak for a half hour, and cut in 1-4-inch slices. Butter a baking dish, put in a layer of the sliced potatoes, sprinkle with salt and pepper, dredge with flour, and dot over with 1-2 tablespoon of butter. (A little grated cheese may be sprinkled over each layer if desired). Repeat until the baking dish is nearly filled, then cover with hot milk. Bake 1 1-4 hours in a moderate oven, or place on the back of the stove and cook slowly.

Potato Salad.

Cut cold boiled potatoes into half-inch cubes and season with salt and pepper, or a few drops of onion juice is desired. Heap in a mound in a salad dish and pour over all a cooked salad dressing, and, if one wishes, garnish around edge with a circle of lettuce and hard-boiled eggs.

For variety add to 2 cupfuls of potato one-half cupful of diced cold boiled beet and 2 tablespoons chopped parsley or cheese; carrots and a little chopped celery leaf may be used if preferred.

Many cooked or canned left-over vegetables may be attractively used for salads. Diced turnips and carrots are often used in potato salad. Left-over beans, peas, etc., with finely diced potato, may be used to fill tomato cups and served with any preferred dressing.

Cooked Salad Dressing.

2 eggs, 2 tablespoonfuls vinegar, 3 tablespoonfuls cold water, 1-2 teaspoonful salt, 2 teaspoonfuls of sugar, 1-4 teaspoonful mustard, if desired.

Beat the eggs until light, then add salt, sugar, mustard, water and vinegar and beat thoroly. Cook over boiling water until thick, stirring constantly. Pour the hot dressing over the cold potatoes, and set away until cold. If preferred one can let the dressing get cold before using it, and this is best if other vegetables are used with the potato.

Potato Fritters.

2 cups hot mashed potatoes, 4 tablespoonfuls milk, 1 teaspoonful salt, cayenne pepper, few grains, 2 eggs, 1-2 cup flour, 1-8 teaspoonful grated nutmeg.

Add the milk and seasoning to the potatoes, then the eggs well-beaten. Set in a pan of cold water and beat until cold. Add flour, mix well, and drop by spoonfuls in deep fat. Fry until brown and drain on brown paper. Put 1-2 teaspoonful jelly in each spoonful before frying. Roll in powdered sugar when done.

Word received in the city yesterday from Dr. Josephine Milligan states that her plans are progressing and that she expects to sail for France this week.

CROSSED SIGNALS CAUSES NEAR WRECK

Passenger and Freight on Wabash Come Near Head-on Collision—Trains are Stopped With Engines Only Few Feet from Each Other.

One of the nearest approaches to a serious railroad wreck of recent weeks occurred Saturday evening on the Waabsh east of this city.

The Waabsh train which is due in Jacksonville at 6 o'clock was in charge of Conductor Hutchinson and Engineer James Long. The train left this city practically on time and was supposed to have a right of way thru to Springfield. However, a special freight in charge of Conductor Dolan and Engineer Smith, west bound, was supposed to take a siding at Alexander to allow the passenger to go thru.

It is understood that just before Alexander was reached the freight broke in two and the brakeman, Roy Sawyer, on this account failed to inform the engineer of the siding orders. Part of the train was left in the distance and the remainder of the freight continued its westward course.

The trains approached one another just east of Orleans and on account of the straight stretch of track at this point they could see each other approaching for a long distance and slowed down accordingly. When the trains stopped, however, but a few feet separated them. Had there been any sharp curves or other obstructions to the view along the track at this particular point it is probable that a bad smashup would have resulted.

JERSEYVILLE FIVE TRIMS LOCAL HIGH

Defeated Local Boys on Home Floor by Score of 23 to 7—Score at End of First Half 6 to 4 in Favor of Visitors—Poor Basket Shooting Responsible for Defeat.

Jerseyville high tramped on the local high school five in the David Prince gymnasium Saturday evening by a score of 23 to 7. A large audience watched the downfall of their team and gave enthusiastic support in the rooting line. However, the rooting did not help for the locals could not find the basket.

Jacksonville showed better team work than the visitors in the first half. The result was that the score was 6 to 4 in favor of Jerseyville. The home team began to have visions of a victory. These visions were soon dispelled after the start of the second half. The visitors got better and made some phenomenal long shots while Jacksonville missed many easy chances and could not come close to a long shot.

The game was marked by a great deal of roughness on the part of both teams. Smith, Jacksonville's center, was banished from the game before the end for personal fouls. Schwarz, guard of the Jerseyville team, was banished for dirty playing after he had committed two personal fouls.

For Jacksonville Lucas did all the scoring. He counted two baskets in the first half and one basket and one free throw in the second half. Drury was the chief point maker for Jerseyville. Bell the star of the team, was held scoreless in the first half and only connected with two baskets in the second half. The score:

MR. HOFFMAN GAVE SMOKER FOR FRIENDS.

Otis Hoffman was the host to a group of friends Friday evening at his home, 510 North Prairie street, when the invited men gathered for a smoker. Victrola music added greatly to the pleasure of the occasion and excellent refreshments were served. The company included H. L. Caldwell, Joseph Jackson, Fred Begg, W. L. Leach, Watson Leck, Charles Ator, Richard Wheeler, H. J. Smith, Arthur Jackson, Frank Leach, Dr. W. H. Weirich, H. K. Chenoweth and G. H. Timmons. The men in the company go on more than one fishing expedition each year and so all present heard with pleasure the promise of Watson Leck to furnish all the fried chicken needed for all the trips during the coming season. This announcement was of special interest to Messrs. Chenoweth, Leach, Smith, Jackson, Timmons and the host.

The smoker was an occasion joyous in many ways and several of the guests sought to combine business with pleasure. It is recorded that Dr. Weirich sold his fine blooded Guernsey heifer to W. L. Leach, the purchase price being $110, and agreement made that delivery should be between the hours of 1 and 4 a. m., Jan. 19. The doctor also made another record sale of a Poland China pig to Charles Ator for $84.50. As Mr. Ator has a holiday tomorrow it is understood that he will butcher his purchase.

If any one has doubts about the good time that these men had ask any of them for testimony about Mr. Hoffman's hospitality.

R. L. Clayton traveled from Franklin to the city yesterday.

FUNERALS

Tankersley.

Funeral services for Jerre Tankersley were held at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon from the undertaking parolrs of J. G. Reynolds. The Rev. Myron L. Pontius, past of the Central Christian church was in charge. Burial was in Diamond Grove cemetery the bearers being, Noel Wiley, Luther Wiley, Benjamin Davenport, Henry Ruble, Charles Strawn and Henry Strawn, all members of the Modern Woodmen camp of Alexander of which the deceased was a member.

Ogden.

The funeral of the late Porter Ogden was conducted from Bethel A. M. E. church yesterday afternoon by the pastor, Rev. J. H. Fisher Music was impressively rendered by the church choir. Burial was in Jacksonville cemetery and the bearere were Messrs. Andrew Jones, William Johnson, Frank Tate, James Mathews, Joseph Wheeler and George Waffle.

Shelburn

The funeral of the late August Shelburn was conducted in the undertaking parlors of W. W. Gillham yesterday morning in the presence of the number of friends and members of the Grand Army of the Republic.

The services were in charge of Rev. A. A. Todd, pastor of the First Baptist church of which the deceased was a member. Music was furnished by Misses Laura Hayden and Etta Massey who sang with fine acceptance, "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Abide With Me."

Dr. Todd read the 23rd psalm and the 25th and offered a fervent prayer. He then took for his text, "Arise and depart for this is not your rest." A few thoughts only are presented. These words were uttered to the children of Israel when they were too much inclined to regard a camping place a site of permanent abode. We are not stationary in this life. The world moves; the sea is disturbed with waves and the atmosphere by winds. We like to regard the world as a place of permanent rest but the Maker did not so design it. This world is not an abiding place but we move about in it till death ends our careers. But we have the assurance that "there remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God." "Let not your hearts be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions. If it were not so I would have told you; I go to prepare a place for you."

This comforting message came to our brother for he was a Christian, a member of the Baptist church and a consistent man. It is to our interest to preptare for that rest. He was devoted to his family; his grandchild who mourns him so deeply was the only girl in the family and greatly she will miss him. But he has entered into a glorious rest prepared for them that love God.

The ritual of the Grand Army was then carried out by Commander George Faul and assisting officers and flowers were laid on the casket in proper form, after which the remains were borne to their last resting place in Jacksonville cemetery by Comrades S. T. Madox, L. Goheen, R. R. Stevenson, C. R. Taylor, S. W Nichols and John Minter.

"So Long Letty", splendid musical comedy will positively come to the Grand Monday night.

MORTUARY

Brown

Charles Price, the East State jeweler, has received word of the recent death of Bert Brown, a man who lived in this city for some years and three years with Charles Price learning the watchmaking and jeyelry business. Mr. and Mrs. Price held the gentleman in very high esteem. Of the gentleman a Peoria paper says.

While it has been known for days that the death of Bert Brown impended at any time, the announcement that he is no more is a distinct shock to the community in which he has played a prominent part for many years. Few men enjoy the wide acquaintance and the many firm friendships that were his. Simple and unassuming, always ready to aid, full of enterprise, he has gained the deep respect of all.

He was just 47 years of age—just in the prime of life and usefulness. His business, that of watchmaking and jewelry, had prospered from a small beginning until he recently moved from South Adams street to the Lehmann building on Jefferson avenue, with every prospect of still further and rapid growth.

In Masonic circles he was one of the very few who attain the exalted thirty-third degree and the youngest man, probably, in Illinois to enpoy that deserved honor. He has filled practically every high office in the gift of Masonic fraternity, being a past master of Temple lodge, past high priest of Peoria chapter, past eminent commander of the Knights Templar, past potentate of Mohammed Temple, etc., and a member of the Peoria Council, Royal and Select Masons. He was also a member of the Modern Woodmen and of the Knights of Pythias.

He was the son of Adam and Salome Brown and was born in Washington, Ill. He has been the official inspector of watches for many years of the railroads entering Peoria.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Violet B. Brown and one daughter, Miss Gladys. Ex-Alderman B. Frank Brown, president of the Brown Printing Co., is a brother, and he has a sister, Mrs. Lettie Newton, of Los Angeles, Cal., where his father also resides. His mother died a year or two ago. Chauncey Brown, enlisted and stationed at Camp Herring, is a nephew.

Birthday Party.

A birthday party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Winter, 4½ miles south of Jacksonville, in honor of their daughter, Alice. It was the young lady's 8th birthday. The little folks played games and coasted to pass time away. Refresments were served consisting of ice cream cake, bananas, candy, Mrs. J. Lewis and Mrs. J. S. Butler assisted in waiting and entertaining. The little folks were Anna and merle Harney, Willie James, Leo and Mary Rose Costello, David, Johnie Robert and Anna Elizabeth McManus, Alice and Theodore Paul and Twyle Williams. All were school mates.

L. Goheen Surprised on His 75th Birthday.

Miss Anna Goheen of Forrest City, Mo., is visiting her brother, Lycurgus Goheen and as Sunday was his 75th birthday Miss Goheen and her sister, Mrs. Max Gehring decided it would be nice to celebrate the event in some way so they industriously went to work getting ready the good things of life for the occasion. The principal feature of the dinner table was a birthday cake with 75 candles on one side being the figures 1843, in the middle 75, and on the bottom, 1918. When all was ready Mr. and Mrs. Gehring and children appeared and the surprise of Mr. Goheen was complete. The whole affair was very pleasant and showed the devoted love of two faithful daughters, a son-in-law and grandchildren.

Friday Social Circle.

The Friday Social Circle met Friday afternoon with Mrs. James Keefe on West North street. There was a good attendance of members and all were busy as usual sewing and knitting for the Red Cross.

The Friday Social Circle was organized in 1904 and its membership is limited to ladies living on West North street between Prairie and Pine streets. It has always been a social organization, the object being to promote neighborhood sociability. Meetings are held semi-monthly, and until recently the hostess served refreshments.

After our country entered the world war, members of the Circle decided to do their "bit" and work for the Red Cross. It was voted to omit refreshments during the war, in order to show patriotism and conserve food and time, and use the money instead to buy material to work on. The ladies have been energetic and enthusiastic, and have taken much pleasure in making this splendid record. Since July 1st, articles have been completed for the Red Cross as follows: 202 hospital boots, 15 dozen handkerchiefs, 56 napkins, 12 tray cloths, 12 hospital capes or nightingales, 14 water bottle covers, 20 hospital pillows, 28 Christmas bags; knit articles since Nov. 1st: 13 sweaters, 16 pair socks, 2 helmets, 1 muffler, 1 pair wristlets.

BANANAS! BANANAS!
A car load of choice bananas has arrived in town and will be for sale at the stores of the various fruit dealers and groceries of the city at very fair prices.

CAPPS MILL ORDERS NOT IN DEFINITE FORM

Confusion Between Quartermaster and Fuel Departments May be Cleared up Today—Various Rulings Made—Plumbers to Keep Open Monday.

Whether or not J. Capps & Sons mill will be in operation tomorrow is still somewhat in doubt. However, H. M. Capps, president of the firm, stated last night that he fully expected advices from Washington or Chicago today directing that the mill be operated. Telegraphic orders from the quertermasters department in both Chicago and Philadelphia have directed the mill management to proceed with work on war contracts. A telegram from the state fuel administrator, transmitted thru M. F Dunlap, local fuel administrator, directed that the mill cannot operate unless the secretary of war, or navy or some other cabinet member makes a specific order.

Since the quartermasters department is a subdivision of the war department, the difference in the order receivxed and the orders the fuel administrator says must be received is apparently wholly technical. The list of business plants exempt from the ruling makes specific mention of mills working on certain grades of woolen cloth for soldiers' overcoating and that is exactly the kind of cloth that the Capps mill is now turning out.

The quartermasters department is continually making requests to speed up the production of this cloth and it is only reasonable to suppose that the government desires the work to proceed here. No doubt only the great mass of telegrams sent into Washington asking for interpretation of the fuel administrator's arder has prevented the specific order being made of the Capps mills to proceed.

The mill whistle will blow at the usual time Monday morning and employes will report for work and it is more than propable that the mill will open as usual.

Direct Order Asked

The telegram to Mr. Dunlap from J. E. Williams, state fuel administrator, which left the matter somewhat in doubt reads as follows:

Chicago, Jan. 19.

Fuel administration at Washington rules that all applications for exemption be approved by secretary of war or navy or some other member of cabinet for whose department work is being done. Upon receipt of such approval the fuel administration will grant exemption."

Mr. Dunlap was called upon at various times during the day to express opinions with reference to the operation of the law. In a number of instances he sent requests to the state fuel administrator. In response to the request of Principal Claybaugh of the Business College Mr. Dunlap secured a statement from Mr. Williams setting forth that the exemption with reference to schools applies to all schools and that they may remain open Monday.

The question of authority of florists keeping open their greenhouses was also submitted to the state administrator. Greenhouses must be kept warm in order to prevent plants from freezing. Whether or not the proprietors have authority to sell goods is another question.

Other Business Lines

News stands can remain open for the sale of papers but cannot dispose of cigars or tobacco. As previously mentioned, the rule for drug stores is to sell only drugs and medical goods. Ice cream is classed as a food and may be sold in confectionery stores, but candy, cigars and other goods cannot be sold in these stores. The offices of dentists and physicians may remain open but the fact that other persons have offices in the same building where these offices are located will not give them authority to remain open. There seems to be some confusion with reference to the ruling about laundries. Information received last night by Mr. Barr and Mr. Howe was to the effect that laundries would probably be required to cuose Mondays. They will close here Monday at any rate because of the lack of water.

Plumbers Requested to Work

A telegram received yesterday by Bernard Gause, state president of the plumbers' association, stated that all plumbers are exempt from the recent order of the national fuel administrator. In fact, all plumbers are requested to keep their places of business open on Mondays in order that their services may be available in case of breakage at any of the establishments that are closed on those days.

RECEIVE CARS LOADED WITH SNOW.

Marion, Ill., Jan. 19.—Mines here and at Herrin received a supply of supposedly empty cars today, which were found to be loaded with snow. The snow was said to have been shoveled in at cities where the cars had been sidetracked enroute here. The mines refused to unload the snow. Up till noon the railroad had not done so, the local railroad men being in doubt apparently, and mean while time was lost during which the cars might have been loaded with coal.

Will Be Dumped.

Chicago, Jan. 19.—Illinois Central officials when informed of the snow laden cars at Marion today, said that the snow was probably some that had been loaded in Chicago in order to clear tracks here and that the railroad would have it dumped.

WOOL GROWERS DENOUNCE EDITOR

Assert Editorial in Omaha Bee Misrepresented Facts.

Salt Lake City, Utah Jan. 19.—Victor Rosewalter, editor of the the Omaha Bee was denounced at this morning's session of the fifty fourth annual convention of the National Wool Growers' association for an editorial appearing in that paper in which Frank J. Hagenbarth, president of the association was accused of lack of patriotism and assertion made that the sheepmen were 80 cents a pound for wool.

Dr. J. M. Wilson of Douglas, Wyo., read the editorial which he branded as a misrepresentation of facts. He also called attention to the fact that the editorial was printed in the Omaha Bee, Jan. 16, while Mr Hagenbarth's speech was not delivered before fore the wool growers' convention here until January 17. All the delegates were called upon to state if they had ever sold wool at 80 cents a ponud. Not one responded that he had. Further than that, the statement was made that he majority had sold their wool at less than 50 cents a pound.

Did Not Misquote

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 19.—Victor Rosewalter, editor of the Omaha Bee, is in the east but T. W. McCullough, associate editor and author of the editorial which excited the anger of the wool growers, made this statement

"The address of President Hagenbarth was published under a date of Jan. 14 and was represented to have been delivered in Salt Lake that day. The editorial complained of did not misquote or distort anything contained in The Associated Press dispatch. The figure quoted as the selling price of wool was taken from a market report. Since it was published the staple has hold at even higher than 80 cents in Boston, good wool ranging well above a dollar a pound. Moreover, the convention accepted the suggestion of the Bee and buried the resolution asking for a cessation of meatless days and the substitution of porkless days."

Close Convention

Having raised more than $28,000 to aid in "winning the great world war for justice and liberty" the National Wool Growers' association closed its fifty fourth annual convention after adopting resolutions on a number of matters of National importance and re-electing all afficers. The cash raised for war purposes was obtained thru the sale of one blooded ram which, after being sold on a share basis two times brought the record sum of $18,350. Ten more rams were donated by state organizations for sale later and at the same time the ram already sold twice will be sold the third time.

The convention at its closing session adopted resolutions pledging support to every measure promulgated by the president of the United States in order to win the war condemning wool substitutes (shoddy) in manufacture of clothing and blankets for soldiers and sailors and urging the government to enact laws requiring the branding of all adulterated woolen goods as such.

The convention decided to ask the secretary of agriculture to secure if possible an appropriation by congress of not less thatn $1,000,000 for range improvement work and $1,000,000 for eradication of poisonous plants. It also asked suspension of the 640 acre homestead during the war.

Officers were elected as follows: Frank J. Hagenbarth, president, Salt Lake, A. J. Knollin, eastern vice-president, Kansas City; M. J. Powers, western vice-president, Flagstaff, Ariz.; Frank Miracle, treasurer, Helena, Mont.; S W. McClure secretary, Salt Lake City.

ROUMANIAN CITY IS TRANSFORMED BY WAR

Jassy, Provisional Capital of Roumania, Now Has a Population of 300,000—Presents Many Features of Uncommon Interest to American Observer.

Jassy, Rumania — (Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Few cities in Europe have been more profoundly affected by the war than the little city of Jassy, now the provisional capital of Rumania. From a quiet, tranquil municipality with a population of less than 75,000, the place has suddenly grown to such proportions that the Government authorities have found it difficult to provide comfortable living quarters for the civil population, which now numbers over 300,000.

After the evacuation of Bucharest, this modest little city became almost over night the home of the King and Queen and the seat of the entire government. Here also are located the legations of all friendly foreign governments and the headquarters of the Rumanian Army and of important divisions of the Russian forces.

Historic Associations.

Before the war Jassy was known chiefly as the ancient capital of the Province of Moldavia, and as a city of interesting churches and historic associations. It is now the center of all official, commercial and military activity in the unoccupied territory of Rumania. When Bucharest and the southern portion of the little Latin Kingdom were evacuated, a large part of the population of that section sought refuge here. Schools, colleges, churches, stores, barracks, and indeed any form of structure that afforded shelter, had to be converted quickly into living quartrs to provide for the great influx of homeless people who fled before the invading Germans. Provision had also to be made for the various departments of the government and for the many branches of the army.

To the American observer the city presents many features of uncommon interest. Along the main streets are to be seen great throngs of Rumanian, Russian, French and Serbian officers or soldiers, in uniforms so varied in color and pattern that all strict standards of uniformity seem to be sacrificed to utility and comfort. Here and there an American Red Cross officer in his distinctive garb of yellow gives added color to the animated scene. Numberless military automobiles, bearing generals, colonels or other officers on important missions, dash back and forth at feverish speed.

Scores of motor lorries, laden with the materials of war, make their lumbering way thru the streets with utter disregard to the comfort of pedestrians. Now and then a Red Cross motor ambulance, fresh from an errand of mercy at the front, stops in front of a hospital and discharges its burden of sick and wounded. In a few minutes it is off again to the rear-line trenches to gather another batch of the country's crippled soldiers.

Deserters are Derided by Crowds.

Marching up a side street, under guard, is a large number of Austrian and German prisoners, just in from the front, some of them ragged, thin, unclean and disheveled, but all apparently happy at being relieved from the hardships of war. In another section of the city, accompanied by several armed soldiers is a small company of deserters or slackers, most of them dejected and spiritless, with crowds of curious onlookers commenting derisively on the lack of courage which made them seek freedom from military service.

At the railroad station a long train of cars enters, bearing hundreds of Rumanian Transylvanians captured by the Russians from the Austrians and now turned over to the Rumanian military authorities for service under the Rumanian flag. The men seem happy at the prospect of serving the country of their nativity, but are conscious of the grim fate that awaits them if taken prisoners by the Germans or Austrians; for if re-taken by the Teutonic forces they will be summarily shot as traitors.

Not far from the center of the city are the residences of the King and Queen, which in times of peace were the quarters of military companies. In keeping with the tendency of the times, they are severely plain in all their appointments and surroundings, and it is difficult for the visitor to realize that within the plain, rude walls are housed the sovereign heads of a nation. The Queen may be seen almost any day setting out from the royal residence in an automobile, unguarded, and attended only by one of the ladies-in-waiting from the court. The King likewise is a familiar figure on the streets of Jassy. He usually travels by motor, accompanied by one of his generals or military aides. The royal family is much loved by the people, and both he and the Queen mingle among their subjects with a spirit of democracy and catholicity that is deeply impressive to the visitor from other countries.

Money is of Little Value.

In the poorer quarter of the provisional capital is a large public market-place where hundreds of farmers and peasants gather daily to dispose of their meagre wares. Of most striking interest perhaps is the fact that the ordinary method of paying for goods with money has given way in many cases to the primitive custom of barter and exchange; for in the present scarcity of food in Rumania money has come to have but little value. At this market-place may be seen an itinerant merchant trading a bushel of potatoes for a quantity of wood, a peasant woman exchanging a pound of butter for a package of sugar, or a farmer swapping a suckling pig for a few pieces of leather.

While the city has many picturesque aspects, it is not without its scenes of sorrow and depression. Making its way slowly along a narrow street is a shabby, dilapidated, boxlike vehicle, so small that it resembles a toy wagon, which the natives generously call a hearse, and which is bearing to final repose the body of one of the late residents of the city. Drawn by a single horse, pitifully decrepit and lame, the hearse is followed by a young man on foot. Then, in turn, comes a crude gray-cart, on which is seated a patriarchal figure, bent with the weight of years.

The spectator inquires the details of the sombre spectacle and is informed that a young woman has fallen a victim of typhus—that terrible scourge which as claimed so many thousands of Rumania's population; that the young man in the rear with bowed head was the young woman's financee and that the old man on the wagon, who is too feeble to walk, is the last of the family of the deceased. Scores of military officers and soldiers bare heir heads and stand in silent attention while the little procession makes its way to the local cemetery.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE SWAMPS BLACKBURN

Coach Harmon's Men Playing the Second String Men in First Half Run Away with the Game—All of Men Showed up Well—Hill High Point Man with Ten.

Coach Harmon's Blue and White basketball squad had some strenuous practice at Carlinville Saturday night in the game with Blackburn university. The final score was 53 to 19 in favor of Illinois.

Coach Harmon used his entire second team with the exception of J. Daigh in the first half. When it ended the score was 19 to 13 in favor of Illinois. Had Harmon started his first team in the game at the beginning the score probably would have been one hundred or more, providing the men had not become exhausted from throwing baskets.

In the first half Barnes and Cully massed 15 of the 19 points between them. In the second half Hill was the high man with five baskets. Tomlinson and Cox each had three. The game demonstrated to Coach Harmon that he has some valuable second string men and Illinois should be as well fortified with extra players as any college in the Little Nineteen conference.

The stars for Illinois on the offense were Barnes, Cox, Cully, Hill, Tomlinson and J. Daigh. The latter played the entire game and was a tower of strength on the defense. The men displayed excellent team work and if the present gait can be maintained Illinois will make all of the other teams go to beat them.

For Blackburn Poley and Denby made all but two of the points scored. However, Blackburn was hopelessly outclassed when Illinois' first string men went into the game. The score:

Illinois:	F.G.	F.T.	T.P.
Barnes, f	3	1	7
Cox, f	3	0	6
Cully, f	4	0	8
Hill, f	5	0	10
Dunscomb, c	2	0	4
Tomlinson, c	3	0	6
Swain, g	0	0	0
P. Daigh, g	3	0	6
J. Daigh, g	3	0	6
Totals	26	1	53
Blackburn:	F.G.	F.T.	T.P.
Poley, f	4	1	9
Denby, f	4	0	8

THE GREAT WAR GOVERNOR

Some Corrections

If all the Centennial information sent out from Springfield is no more reliable than some of that in Friday's Journal, regarding the great War Governor Richard Yates, it will be decidedly misleading.

Richard the Second, late Governor, told me some years ago that his father was not born in 1818. That they did not know just when he was born.

It is true, and ever to be remembered, that Gov. Yates gave Gen. Grant to America, by commissioning Grant, when neither the National War Department nor Grant's native state, Ohio, would employ him.

Mr. Yates was graduated from Illinois college in 1835 not "1838". His law office was in Jacksonville, not "in Springfield."

Yates was elected governor but once, in 1861, not "re-elected in 1862." A governor then did not succeed himself. He served four years.

I am not absolutely certain, but think he occupied Cairo before the legislature met on special call. John W. Burns knows about that, if his memory is good.

The "Copperheads" carried Illinois in 1862, so Yates would have had a slim chance of re-election. But he did prorogue them and as he said "sent them howling to their homes!" Which act is also always to be remembered.

The name of the second Gov. Yates is Richard—not "Richard D."—and he "is the worthy son of a noble sire."

Cairo was not "garrisoned with regular troops." Gov. Yates sent the soldiers first—occupying Cairo from Chicago, and John W. Burns was his private messenger to Gen. Swift, who had charge.

A few days later, Capt. C. H. Adams' "Hard'n Light Guards", and Capt. M. F. Wood's "Union Guards", leaving here on the morning of April 22, 1861, were sent that evening to Cairo, probably getting there April 23, 1861. They were in the 10th Ill. Vols. Two Quincy companies were also in that regiment.

Some of the matter from Springfield regarding Gov. Yates reads like a poor reference to him in a modern "Cyclopedia of American biography" published about 1886.

REV. PERCY W. STEVENS HERE

Rev. Percy W. Stevens who is conducting a revival service in Peoria ran down on the morning train yesterday expecting to return in the afternoon. He put in a busy day in Jacksonville, meeting a great many friends who greeted him most cordially. He is not making a regular work of evangelizing but a few years ago he conducted a meeting in Peoria with such good success that he was invited to return. Already the converts number 130 and the worthy gentleman is hoping for seventy more today. He is looking remarkably well and shows with pardonable pride the photograph of the precious twins who have come to gladden his home. He is always welcome when he comes to Jacksonville.

Mrs. Thomas Harber and Miss Mabel Forrester of the Conservatory of Music will render a selection from Gounod at Centenary church Sunday morning.

HELP THE LOYALTY CAMPAIGN

Get Cards and Distribute Them to the Best of Your Ability

Loyalty campaign to which reference was made in the last meeting of the board of education is a matter of great importance and the gentlemen in the several wards urge the co-operation of all loyal citizens in the work. It has been suggested that the distribution of cards would be better by adults that it may be thoro and systematic. All persons willing to aid in this work pleast call on any one of the four members of the board. Dr. Duncan, Messrs. Muelhausen, Hoyer and Metcalf.

STILL IN HOSPITAL.

Russel H. Eyre, who, as has been noted before in the Journal, has for several weeks been confined in the hospital at Jefferson Barracks, is still bedfast, tho his condition was thought to be slowly improving. Until the last few days he was under quarantine as his doctor said that he had developed some symptoms of scarlet fever and wanted his case watched closely that it might not spread among the others if it was found to rally be scarlet fever.

ATHLETIC CONTESTS PLANNED

Chicago, Jan. 18.—The athletic contests between soldiers from Camp Funston, Kans., and Camp Dodge, Ia., will be held at Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 26 instead of Jan. 26 and 27 as originally planned.

Kansas University defeated Iowa State College 24 to 21 in a Missouri Valley conference basketball game at Lawrence, Kans.

Joe Berger of Chicago and Kid Williams of Milwaukee fought a ten round bout at Burlington, Ia.

James Baker of the easterly direction was among the city callers yesterday.

Mothers Thank Us

Keep your growing girls free from colds and weakening coughs and you are helping them to healthy vigorous womanhood. Thousands of mothers have written letters of thanks, telling what has done for their daughters in ridding them of coughs that "hung on" and weakened them just at the age when the young girls required all the physical strength they could command.

Foley's Honey and Tar is noted for its quick effect on coughs, colds and croup.

Mrs. Ada Sanders, Cottontown, Tenn., writes:—"We use Foley's Honey and Tar as our best and only cough remedy. It never fails to cure our two girls when they have colds."

A NEW ORDER ESTABLISHED.

It Will be Known as the Clover Leaf Boosters.

The numerous officers and employees of the Clover Leaf Casualty Company have decided that conviviality rightly enjoyed may be a means of adding to their usefulness, enjoyment and the welfare of the company and the city in general. For this purpose they held a meeting yesterday afternoon and effected an organization with the following officers:

President—Miss Fern Haigh.

First vice president—Miss Helen Morris.

Second vice president—Miss Frances Graubner.

Secretary—Miss Margaret Strandberg.

Treasurer—Miss Marie Seibert.

The order includes all employees, ladies and gentlemen, and all officers of the organization and will be known as the Clover Leaf Boosters, whose object will be to promote the welfare of the company, the city and the country in general. Meetings are to be held once a month when a banquet will be enjoyed.

COUNT FIFTY! PAINS AND NEURALGIA GONE

Instant Relief! Rub This Nerve Torture and Misery Right Out With "St. Jacobs Liniment"

Rub this soothing, penetrating liniment right into the sore, inflamed nerves, and like magic—neuralgia disappears. "St. Jacobs Liniment" conquers pain. It is a harmless "neuralgia relief" which doesn't burn or discolor the skin.

Don't suffer! It's so needless. Get a small trial bottle from any drug store and gently rub the "aching nerves" and in just a moment you will be absolutely free from pain and suffering.

No difference whether your pain or neuralgia is in the face, head or any part of the body, you get instant relief with this old-time, honest pain destroyer—it can not injure.—Adv.

UGH! ACID STOMACH, SOURNESS, HEARTBURN, GAS OR INDIGESTION

The Moment "Pape's Diapepsin" Reaches the Stomach All Distress Goes

Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into acids and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach? Now, Mr. and Mrs. Dyspeptic, jot this down: Pape's Diapepsin helps neutralize the excessive acids in the stomach so your food won't sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick, so certainly effective. No difference how badly your stomach is upset you usually get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it helps to regulate your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure. "Pape's Diapepsin" is positive in neutralizing the acidity, so the misery won't come back very quickly.

You feel different as soon as "Pape's Diapepsin" comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructations of undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine.

Go now, make the best investment you ever made, by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia, or any stomach disorder, due to acid fermentation.—Adv.

SUNDAY SENTIMENT

The Rich Beggar

Lazarus, who lay at the gate of Dives, is called a beggar. That is only in reference to his lot for a few days on earth. Being poor and sick, he could not work and so had to beg. But beneath the disguise of a beggar, he was richer than Dives, who was so poor when he died, he could not get a drop of water. Lazarus was a child of God and an heir to a kingdom in heaven. A convoy of angels escorted him to Paradise, and he entered into a possession of that inheritance of glory when he died.

Which was the beggar really, Dives or Lazarus?

If thou faint in the day of adversity, thy strength is small.—Solomon.

It is the trying, not the result of trying that counts.

* *

Thank God for the man who is cheerful,
In spite of life's troubles, I say;
Who sings of a bright tomorrow,
Because of the clouds of today.
His life is a beautiful sermon,
And this is the lesson to me—
Meet trials with smiles and they vanish;
Face cares with a song and they flee.

* *

The "luck" that I believe in
Is that which comes with work,
And no one ever finds it
Who's content to wish and shirk.
The men the world calls "lucky"
Will tell you, every one,
That success comes not by wishing,
But by hard work, bravely done.

* *

Is This You?

Here's to the health of the one who tries
To bhighten the life of another.
Here's to the one that by doing good
Is the weakling's great big brother
Here's success to your and your work,
'Tis the kind that no one can measure;
May every seed you plant today
Afford you endless pleasure.
Here's success in all your aims

That end to make bright hours;
May every aim find real reward
As a token of your powers.
For in your life you are building strong,
A monument indeed;
May your every wish then be fulfilled,
May you never know a need.

A Little Way

A little way to walk with you, my own—
Only a little way,
Then one of us must weep and walk alone
Until God's day.

A little way! It is so sweet to live
Together, that I know,
Life would not have one withered rose to give
If one of us should go.

And if these lips should ever learn to smile,
With thy heart far from mine,
'Twould be for joy that in a little while
They would be kissed by thine!

* *

Trust in the Lord, and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed. Delight thyself also in the ord; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart. Commit thy way unto the Lord; trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass.—Psalm xxxvii:3-4-5.

THE PUBLIC MUST AGAIN SAVE WATER

The water situation again is critical, and will be until there is a genuine thaw. Consumers must again use from wells and cisterns for closet flushings, bathing, etc., and otherwise practice water conservation. Offenders will be cut off. There now is but about five feet of water in the reservoir and that must be held for possible fires. I regret the action necessary, but we face cold facts.

CONSERVATORY NOTES

There will be a recital of advanced students on Friday evening, January 25th, in Recital Hall. The public is cordially invited to attend. A students' recital will also be given Saturday afternoon, Jan. 26th, at 3 p. m.

The rehearsal of the Illinois College Chorus will be held, as usual, on Monday evening, Jan. 21st, at seven, in Recital Hall. It is expected that Miss Winifred Kates, of Bloomington, will begin the training of the Chorus for the comic opera which is to be performed early in the spring.

Mrs. Wilson and her pupil, Mary Elizabeth Pribe gave a musical afternoon in Louisiana, Mo., during the holidays. At the close of the program Miss Genevieve Wilson sang several songs, accompanying herself on the Ukelele.

Miss Mabel Forrester will play some violin solos, accompanied by Mr. Willard Wesner, at a meeting of the D. A. R. next Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. T. Wilson.

The song, "Unforgotten," composed by Mr. Fred Meyers and dedicated to Mrs. Genevieve Clark Wilson, will be sung, accompanied by the composer, by Mrs. Helen Brown Read at her Chicago recital on January 27th.

WILL DO HIS "BIT."

Glenn Walker of Springfield, formerly of Jacksonville, employed by Henry Bersig on the Strawn farm for a number of years, has enlisted in the Field Artillery, where he will do his bit.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS HELD MEETING

Formulated Plans for Raising Quota of Morgan County for War Emergency Fund—Much Euthusiasm Shown.

In order to further this worthy undertaking the county association had an enthusiastic meeting in the basement of the Ayers National bank yesterday with fifteen workers present. A fine spirit prevailed and all were eager to do their part toward aiding the Army Y. M. C. A., Red Cross and other war activities. Morgan county has been asked for $500 to pay the salary and stenographer of an agent who will have charge of the work. Lawrence county has come forward with its $600 and McHenry with its $300. Some sixty counties in all have undertaken the work and the state body wants all to join. The allotment of $500 for this county was accepted and some of it subscribed at the meeting.

All precincts of the county were apportioned a certain amount of the $500 it is desired to raise. These apportionments are as follows:

Alexander, $50, Rev. Thomas G. Shaw, president.

Chapin, $40, Miss Carrie Johnson, president.

Concord, $40, Melvin O. Smith, president.

Franklin, $50, M. B. Keplinger, president.

Literberry, $50, Harry Ogle, president.

Lynnville, $40, Frank Masters, president.

Meredosia, $30, George W. Looman, president.

Murrayville, $40, William Wiswell president.

Sinclair, $40, Clyde Martin, president.

Waverly, $60, Mrs. Minnie Barrows, president.

Woodson, $30, Nellis H. Crain, president.

West Jacksonville, $30, Charles Patterson, president.

Jacksonville, $150, Charles L. Mathis, president.

Each precinct president is asked to prepare a list of names of persons in each precinct who are available people to be solicited. We suggest this list be at least 10 per cent of the population. These persons should be solicited by teams of at least two members, these teams appointed by the precinct campaign manager. As far as possible the initial gifts should be large ones, and all the members of the county organizations should set the example of liberal subscriptions at the head of the list. Be sure to get a return on every name in the list, either a contribution or a refusal.

Endeavor to get cash subscriptions if possible, but where parties desire to help and do not have the ready cash, take pledges by all means. All pledges to be made payable by May 1.

Solicitors of each precinct are requested to make all reports to T. M. Tomlinson of this city, who is treasurer of the organization. The committee hopes to finish the work in the next week and have all returns made by the end of that time. It was announced at the meeting Saturday that all who make a contribution of $1.00 or more will receive a copy of the "Trumphet Call," the Illinois State Sunday school magazine for one year.

VINOL MAKES CHILDREN STRONG

And Invigorates Old People

Any doctor will tell you that the ingredients of Vinol as printed below contain the elements needed to improve the health of delicate children and restore strength to old people.

Cod liver and beef peptones, iron and manganese peptonates, Iron and Ammonium Citrate, lime and Soda Glycerophosphates, Cascarin.

Those who have puny, ailing or run-down children or aged parents may prove this at our expense.

Besides the good it does children and the aged there is nothing like Vinol to restore strength and vitality to weak, nervous women and overworked, run-down men.

Try it. If you are not entirely satisfied, we will return your money without question; that proves our fairness and your protection. Millions of people have been convinced this way. Lee P. Allcott, Druggist, Jacksonville, Ill.—Adv.

MOTHER! GIVE CHILD "SYRUP OF FIGS" IF TONGUE IS COATED

If Cross, Feverish, Sick, Bilious, Clean Little Liver and Bowels

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely.

A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sours, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups, plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Adv.

POSSES THE POWER OF ALLADIN

Anna Case of the Metropolitan Opera

Marie Sundelius of the Metropolitan Opera

Margaret Matzenauer of the Metropolitan Opera

Alice Verlet late of Paris Opera

ALADDIN had merely to rub his wonderful lamp and instantly the slave stood at attention. Compared to the power which Thomas A. Edison offers you, Aladdin's was limited. For, ownership of that wonderful instrument, the New Edison, means that a group of the world's greatest artists is constantly at your service. A mere turn of the hand and presto! right there in the room peals forth the glorious voice of Anna Case, Margaret Matzenhauer, Marie Rappold, Arthur Middleton, Thomas Chalmers, or any other of our eminent Metropolitan stars. It is exactly as though the singer were there in the flesh. No human ear can detect the slightest shade of difference between the living artist's intergretation and that of

The New Edison

Marie Rappold of the Metropolitan Opera

Giovanni Zenatello late of Boston Grand Opera

Thomas Chalmers of the Metropolitan Opera

Arthur Middleton late of Metropolitan Opera

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

Conceive yourself in a crowded concert hall. One of our Metropolitan stars, Marie Rappold, for example begins to sing. Through the building soars her brilliant soprano voice. Now watch the audience. Note the sudden stir. See the amazement reflected in each face. What has happened? The singer's lips have ceased to move. And still the beautiful aria continues. Surely, Marie Rappold is still singing. She must be. Every lingering overtone, every subtle shade of color is there. But her lips are motionless. What is the answer?

In a sense Marie Rappold is still singing. The New Edison which stands beside her is playing a Rappold Re-Creation. The explanation is simple. First the instrument is started. Then Rappold joins in. Suddenly she stops and the Re-Creation continues. And so completely, so utterly satisfying is the Re-Creation that the listeners refuse to credit the evidence of their senses.

This is the famous Edison tone test; the demonstration which convinces the most skeptical that Thomas A. Edison has succeeded in actually re-creating music.

Come into our store and see for yourself just what we mean by Music's Re-Creation.

Cole Will Aid City in Solving Problem

Offers Aid in Solving the Housing Problem Here—Chamber of Commerce Welcomes Aid of Securities Co. Head — Plan a Big Meeting to Review Matters.

A meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, which will be one of the most important held by that body in many a month, will occur here during the latter part of the month. One of the important matters to be brought before this meeting will be housing problems, which is serious in Fort Madison at this time. Among the men who have pledged their aid to Fort Madison in finding a way out of this difficulty is C. R. Cole, head of the Industrial Securities company, and a man who has already done much for Fort Madison. He will be called upon to aid in the big movement.

Mr. Cole is probably as greatly interested in the solving of the housing problem as any other man. His concern is behind the big plant of the Perfection Tire and Rubber company of this city and that company is already feeling the effects of the lack of housing facilities here. In fact the company has taken it upon itself to build homes for its workers.

With the building of the Karamoid Manufacturing company's plant here in the spring, more homes will be required. It is also known that Mr. Cole is preparing for the removal of another big plant here which is a growing concern, will bring many workers with it. He is also arranging for the removal of a cereal concern here which will employ a good force of workers. But the housing problem is confronting him and retarding his efforts.

Mr. Cole has made a solemn pledge to make Fort Madison greater and he is going to carry out that decision. All who know him agree to this.

Several other plants, one having already leased space here, are moving here. The city needs a solution to the housing problem and it must act quick. All thinking citizens agree to that.

The industrial Securities Company, which is behind the Perfection Tire & Rubber Co., has now one hundred houses in course of construction, for the housing of its employes, twelve already completed. The houses are being built in blocks of ten, and are being rushed all possible. The company also is adding to its manufacturing plant.

Dec. 25, 1917.

Dear, Mother, Father and all:

Here it is another Christmas and little did I think a year ago I would be in France but I am here but sincerely hope I won't spend another one over on this side of the pond. I am wishing all of you a merry Christmfas and hope that all of you will have many more.

All of the boys here have had a nice Christmas. In our dining hall the Y. M. C. A. had a big Christmas tree and this evening each one of the men will receive a gift. Yesterday the Red Cross gave each soldier a sack and I got a tooth brush, paste, toilet soap, towel, candy and in each sack was a box with tobacco made up from the fund back in the states, accompanying the tobacco was a card indicating who the giver was and the one mine was from was the Atlanta (Ga.) Journal, and I am going to write them a letter of thanks as soon as I can.

Everyone of the boys in our company is getting along fine and we are all anxious for the spring development and then God help our cause, which is just and right.

I guess old "Jack Town" is cold and lots of snow by now and the weather over here is cold but we haven't had much snow but we got it coming to us yet, and then I know we will get more than our share.

The only Christmas package I received from back home was the one from sister Elsie. I heard that the postoffice is crowded clear out in the street and they say we will get packages for two weeks to come. I must close because I am out of news, so with heaps of love,

Your devoted son,
Henry.

Dec. 27, 1917.

Dear Mother and all:

I got your two packages this evening and the things you sent were so thoughtful and good of you, so much more than I expected and mother, thanks ever so much and write to Cousin Alma and her friend Harriet Davis and extend thanks to them. I would write but don't know their address.

I got a delicious box of chocolates from Howard Powell. I think you know him. He used to be in my Sunday school class at the Christian church. It was certainly kind and thoughtful of him to remember me away over here. I am going to give each one of my pals a piece of my cake. I did before when you sent my box for my birthday.

I have already written several letters thanking you for that. The wrist watch is certainly a dandy and it is one of a soldier's most useful articles. I bought a cheap one at Philadelphia before I left but it is about played out. The toilet kit sister Ethel sent is so useful. The one the government issued me is used up and I can make use of the new one right away. I have a great deal of mending to do on my clothes. Don't that sound funny to you? A marine is taught to do everything and when I get back home I can be entirely independent of a woman. I wrote you for razor blades but you don't have to send any now because Ethel sent some in the kit.

I wrote you a letter day before yesterday and told you about my Christmas and I am hoping the next one I spend will be with my dear parents. It doesn't seem possible that it was my second Christmas away from home and that it is three years since I graduated from "high."

I took out four liberty bonds at fifty dollars each and am going to take out five thousand dollars insurance and then I won't have anything coming pay days. I am having some photographs taken and will send you all one, so write and tell me how everyone is. With love to all,

Your son,
Harry

LEO SUITER OBSERVES BIRTHDAY IN FRANCE

Local Man With Expeditionary Force Abroad Writes Relatives Here—Mail Service Good—Is Still Struggling With French Language.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Suiter of this city have received the following letter from their son, Leo E. Suiter, a member of the 29th aero squadron, A. E. F. now on French soil. The young man says the weather is quite cold there but not as severe as it usually is in Illinois at the same period of the year. This is his letter:

Somewhere in France, Dec. 21, 1917.

Dear Parents:

This letter leaves me all o. k. and hope that it will find you all well. We are having some pretty cold weather here of late but I don't think that it gets as cold as it is in Illinois, for they say that winter breaks about the last of January or the first week in February and we haven't had near as cold days as back home.

I haven't written Uncle Isaiah yet but will probably do so tonight. I would have written him before now but I had misplaced your letter with his address. I also owe Aunt Mame a letter too. I sent her a Christmas card but didn't have time to write a letter. I think I have received all the letters which you have written me; we seem to have good mail service. In fact, I received a Journal that came over in sixteen days.

I had a birthday day before yesterday (I never dreamed of having one in France) and to make it seem right I had the pleasure of smoking a Jacksonville cigar on the occasion. (Walter received the package from home that day with the cigars in it.)

Write and tell me all about the registration of women, I would like to know about it. I am still struggling trying to learn French. Believe it is some job, but I think I am progressing fairly well.

There isn't much to say so will close for this time.

Your son,
Leo E. Suiter.

P. S.—Received a letter from the K. of P. lodge telling us to look out for Christmas, and we sure are looking out.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE NOTES

Hume T. Whitacre, '13, formerly connected with the Springfield Register, is now on the Kansas City Journal.

The College Library is indebted to Mr. F. C. Tanner, '98, for a set of records of the recent Constitutional Convention of the State of New York. The set consists of four volumes, containing much important material.

Harold Van Dyke, ex'21, did not return to the College after the Christmas holidays, having enlisted in the military service. Mr. Van Dyke's home is in Ashley.

Mr. James G. Randall, formerly an instructor in history in the College, has an important and timely article in the current number of the American Historical Review, on the "Censorship of the Press During the Civil War."

The Devotional service at Academy Hall, Sunday evening, will be led by Clyde Land, '19, on the subject of "Our Special Religious Meetings." Arrangements have now been completed for these meetings which are to be addressed by the Reverend Adelbert P. Higley of Cleveland. The meetings will be held during the first week in February. Further announcement will be made later.

Ray Bracewell, '15, resigned his position as assistant principal of the Springfield High school to go into the military service. Mr. Bracewell is at Camp Joseph E. Johnston, Jacksonville, Fla., in the Quartermaster's Department.

President Rammelkamp was among those marooned in Chicago on account of the recent blizzard. He was attending the meetings of the Association of American Colleges.

Mr. Ernest F. Alford, '16, now at Camp Taylor, is making application for transfer from the Medical Department of the service into the Aviation Corps.

Howard Ross, '13, familiarly known as "Rube" has received the distinction of being admitted into the third officers training camp. Rex Gary, ex '16, is also reported to be in the third officers training camp.

A telephone message was recently received from Julian Frisbie, ex '17, a corporal in the Marine Corps, who is visiting his parents in Springfield. Doubtless "Friz" will make a visit to Jacksonville before he returns to Paris Island.

Worthington Adams, ex '19, has dropped out of College and enlisted in the Field Artillery. He is now at Jefferson Barracks, St. Louis.

The College faculty has been discussing recently the policy to be pursued next spring regarding possible absences on account of farm work.

ELECTED OFFICERS.

Philologian Literary Society of Whipple Academy held its regular meeting Friday evening. After an interesting program the following officers were elected for the coming semester:

Pres.—Charles Nickel.
Vice Pres.—Olen Turner.
Secretary—Horatio Green.
Critic—John Wilson.
Treasurer—Russell Bronson.
Sergeant at arms—Elmer Nickel.

RED CROSS WORKERS.

The Garment Committee wishes to announce that the new patterns have arrived and are ready for distribution. Model garments made from the new patterns will be ready to show by Wednesday. All organizations are urged to get these new patterns as soon as possible.

"I SUFFERED SEVEN YEARS"

Was Eventually Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I suffered for seven long years with a lame back, irregularities and pain. I had one physician after another but they did me no good. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and gave it a trial and in a short time I felt benefited and am now feeling fine, and without weakness or pain. Many of my friends have also taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and been helped by it."—Mrs. MARGARET NESS, 1846 E. Hazzard St., Philadelphia., Pa.

Women who suffer from displacements, irregularities, inflammation, ulceration, backache, sideache, headaches or "the blues" should not rest until they have given this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. If complications exist, write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special suggestions. The result of its long experience is at your service.

BLIZZARD INTERRUPTS CAMP TAYLOR WORK

Weather Conditions Discourage Officers of 84th Division — Storm of Jan. 12 Worst Since Camp Opened—Establish School for Y. M. C. A. Workers.

Camp Zachary Taylor, Louisville, Ky., Jan.—Weather conditions have discouraged officers of the 84th (Lincoln) Division of the National Army in training here, to a considerable degree. A month has elapsed since the first blizzard interrupted activities. The first one was considered bad enough but the storm which broke Jan. 12 was the worst since the camp opened. The officers, however, are making the best of the situation and are giving the men as much indoor training as possible.

The Infantry School of Arms is utilizing the Y. M. C. A. auditorium and other buildings to teach physical culture and bayonet drills. It was expected that the grenade class soon would go into action, equipped in the manner they will go over the top in France, carrying trench knives, and hurling live grenades in raids upon imaginary foes.

To date the school has graduated 2,335 students, 182 of whom were made instructors, and 423 assistant instructors.

A school for Y. M. C. A. workers will be established at this National Army cantonment in the near future and all "Y" workers and prospective workers will be given instructions. In the future fifty per cent of the Y. M. C. A. representatives here will have overseas service, and the school will prepare them for their endeavors abroad.

Five new buildings are to be erected for the activities here. One will be in the section occupied by the 45th and the 46th Infantries, U. S. A., one in the area of the negro troops, one at the base hospital, one at the rifle range at South Park and another at the Remount Depot. Three officers clubrooms also will be arranged. One will probably be an addition to the main auditorium on the Poplar Level Road, and the other two in other sections of the cantonment.

THE WOODMEN HALL DECORATED

The Woodmen hall on the south side of the square has ben handsomely adorned with paint and paper and various decorations and improvements which add greatly to its appearance This worthy and noble order has a large membership in this city and vicinity and is in a flourishing condition and deserves handsome quarters.

Automobile Experience

Our past experience, which you will admit, from the fact that we have had connected with us men who travel the entire country, as well as men who have sold and repaired every make of automobile on the market, proves we made a most reliable choice when we took the agency for the Auburn and Chevrolet Automobiles.

The best proof of the wonderful performance is our many satisfied users. Both companies are controlled by the original stockholders which proves they were not started as a trading proposition. We have been offered the different agencies for so many different makes which further proves to us that our choice was right. Our refusing these agencies proves to our friends and customers that we were right from a business standpoint, which means we are able to give our customers more value for the dollar than we could offer on any other car made.

If you are a prospective buyer think carefully and weigh the following facts:

If your first judgment were wrong, could you be sure of your second choice?

Would you not prefer buying from some one who had proven their ability to judge right the first time?

Is it good business to switch in the middle of the stream?

Do you want to pay for heavy advertising expense, or do you want every dollar put into the article purchased?

Remember, if there were a better car on the market we would have it. If there were a better car on the market we would know it. If there were a better car made and we knew it we would tell you.

Our show room is nice and comfortable. Our representatives are polite and courteous and always pleased to explain and show goods. Call in and spend a pleasant hour.

CITIES PLAN TO OBSERVE LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY

Every Community of State Urged to Participate in Anniversary as First Feature of Centennial Celebration—Occasion is of Special Significance.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 18.—Every community in Illinois is urged to participate in the anniversary of Lincoln's birthday on February 12, as the first feature of the Centennial Celebration of the admission of Illinois into the Union. The Illinois Centennial Commission, in letters addressed to centennial organizations thruout the state today by Director Hugh S. Magill, Jr., calls special attention to the significance of the occasion.

"The Illinois Centennial Commission would urgently recommend that Lincoln's birthday be specially observed thruout the state this year," the letter states.

"The ideals of liberty, democracy and humanity for which the allied nations are offering up their blood and treasure have brought to a liberty loving people of every land, the unity of a common purpose. All turn to the life and teachings of our immortal Lincoln for inspiration and guidance in this perilous hour.

"February 12 will have a peculiar significance this year thruout the world. The observance of this date will afford an opportunity for the refreshing of our minds and hearts with the wisdom of his words, and the unfaltering faith of his great soul in the ultimate triumph of justice.

"Will you bring this matter to the attention of your centennial committee, and use your influence to have in your community an inspiring and impressive observance of the birthday of our first merican"

The city of Springfield is preparing for an elaborate celebration. There will be a school children's observance in the afternoon when thousands of school children will gather for a special program. Ther will be singing, recitations, etc. In the evening, another popular gathering will be addressed by men of national rputation who are now being sought by the centennial commission in co-operation with the Lincoln Centennial association.

The usual Lincoln banquet, which has been held ever since 1909, has been dispensed with, this year, in order that the gathering may be more democratic.

As this is the first event of the state-wide centennial observance and as Lincoln is recognized the greatest man Illinois has produced, it is believed that the Celebration will be generaal thruout the state.

Mrs. George A. Crawford of Pontiac was a visitor at the College on Friday.

The examination schedules for the close of the First Semester have been posted. A number of new courses are being offered in several of the departments.

President Harker returned Tuesday afternoon, after spending sometime in Chicago attending a meeting of the College Presidents' Association.

Memorial Services were held Wednesday morning in the College Chapel at ten o'clock. Mrs. Jones spoke for the Monday Conversational Club, Eleanor Sherrell for the students, Miss Jennie Anderson for the faculty, and Mrs. Lambert for the Board of Trustees. Mrs. Hartmann and Miss Lazelle closed the services with a beautifully rendered duett. The services were most impressive, and were indicative of the high esteem in which the late Dean was held by everyone connected with the College.

The books from her private library have been given to the College Library. A suitable book plate is being prepared to be put in each copy, commemorative of her kindness and generosity.

The College is feeling keenly the acute water shortage in Jacksonville and some of the school activities have been obliged to suspend because of the water shortage, as everything is being done to conserve and use as small an amount as is possible.

SOCIETY TO HONOR GERARD

New York, Jan. 18.—James W. Gerard, late United States ambassador to Germany, is to be the guest of honor at a supper to be given here tomorrow night by the Society of the Genesee. In addition to Mr. Gerard the speakers will include Job E. Hedges, Lieutenant Perigord of the French army, Attorney General Merton E. Lewis of New York and United States Senuator James W. Wadsworth.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Flynn were city shoppers from Buckhorn yesterday.

YEAR OF CELEBRATIONS FOR CATHOLIC PRELATES

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 18.—The present year will be prolific of anniversary celebrations among the high prelates of the Roman Catholic church in the United States. During the twelve months now begun there will be an almost constant succession of observances to mark the ordination, consecration or other milestones in the careers of archbishops, bishops and other dignitaries of the church in this country.

In May the Most Rev. John Ireland will complete thirty years of service as archbishop of St. Paul. Archbishop Clennon will complete his fifteenth year as archbishop of St. Louis, and the Most Rev. Sebastian G. Messmer will round out a similar period of service as head of the archdiocese of Milwaukee.

Rt. Rev. Maynaise F. Burke will observe the twenty-fifth anniversary of his appointment as bishop of St. Joseph, Mo. Prior to his transfer to the see of St. Joseph in 1893 Bishop Burke had served for some years as bishop of Cheyenne.

Rt. Rev. Peter J. Muldoon will complete a decade of service as bishop of Rockford, Ill., and Rt. Rev. Thomas F. Lillis will finish his fifth year as bishop of Kansas City.

May 12 will be the fortieth anniversary of the consecration of Rt. Rev. Francis S. Chatard, the venerable bishop of the Indianapolis diocese. The thirtieth consecration anniversary will be observed during the year by Bishop Ryan of Alton, Ill., Bishop Hennessy of Wichita, and the Rt. Rev. Leo Haid, Vicariate Apostolic of North Carolina and Belmont Abbey.

Three bishops will attain the twentieth anniversary of their consecration. They are Bishops Cuningham of Concordia, Kans., and Fitzmaurice of Erie, Pa., and the Most Rev. Alexander Christie, former bishop of Vancouver and now archbishop of Portland, Ore.

Bishop Canevin of Harrisburg, Pa., and Bishop O'Reilly of Baker City, Ore., will observe the fifteenth anniversary of their consecration.

The third of May will be the tenth anniversary of the consecration of Rt. Rev. Denis J. O'Connell as Titular Bishop of Sebaste. Bishop O'Connell was for some year auxiliary bishop of San Francisco and is now bishop of Richmond, Va.

Rt. Rev. Joseph Maria Koudelka will celebrate the tenth year of his consecration as Titular Bishop of Germanicopolis and his fifth anniversary as bishop of Superior, Wis.

Bishop Alerding of Ft. Wayne and Bishop Gallagher of Galveston will celebrate the golden jubilee of their ordination to the priesthood, Bishop Gallagher's anniversary falling on next Christmas Day.

In June the Rt. Rev. Owen B. Corrigan, auxiliary bishop of Baltimore, will reach the forty-fifth anniversary of his ordination.

The Bishops who will round out forty years in holy orders include Rt. Rev. Charles E. McDonnell, bishops of Brooklyn and one of the most widely known prelates of the church. Rt. Rev. James Davis, bishop of Davenport, Iowa; Rt. Rev. John J. Nilan, bishop of Hartford; Rt. Rev. J. J. Harty, former archbishop of the Philippines, and now bishop of Omaha.

On the last day of the year the Rt. Rev. Benajmin J. Keiley, head of the diocese of Savannah, will celebrate the forty-fifth anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood.

The sacerdotal silver jubilee of the Rt. Rev. Michael J. Gallagher, the new bishop of Grand Rapids, will be celebrated in March.

The Rt. Rev. John W. Shaw, bishop of San Antonio, will celebrate his thirtieth anniversary of his ordination on May 28.

GOVERNMENT WILL TAKE OVER AMMONIA

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—Importation, manufacture, storage and distribution of ammonia for fertilizer purposes is to be taken over by the government under a proclamation issued by the president.

The industry will be under immediate direction of the secretary of agriculture who will issue license and have authority at any time to cause his representatives to inspect any business under license.

The manufacture and sale of all prime products of ammonia as produced in by-product coke ovens plants, coal gas plants and nitrogen fixation plants also will be under conditions prescribed by the secretary.

INTERSTATE BOWLING TOURNEY

Aurora, Ill., Jan. 18.—Beginning today and continuing for a week or longer this city is to be the host to the fourth annual tournament of the Interstate Bowling Association. More than one hundred five-men teams are entered from various points in Wisconsin, Iowa, Indiana and Illinois. Four thousand dollars in cash prizes will be distributed among the winners in the several events.

FORBID SOCIALIS PROPAGANDA

Washington. Jan. 18.—Orders forbidding all Socialist propaganda in the German army have been issued by the German military authorities, according to a despatch today from Switzerland. Socialist newspapers are forbidden to be sent t othe soldiers.

KANSAS EDUCATIONAL COUNCIL

Topeka, Kans., Jan. 18.—Readjustments in education to meet the war emergency form the principal subject scheduled for discussion by the Kansas State Educational Council at its annual meeting which began here today. Several educators of nation-wide prominence are to be heard during the two days' session.

REQUISITION IS ASKED

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 18.—A requisition on the governor of Missouri for the return to Chicago of Raymond L. Dunn and John Claude, alleged assaultants of Richard L. Bundick, a jackie at the great lakes training camp, was issued by Governor Lowden today. Bundick was robbed of $15. The men sought are under arrest at St. Lous.

CLEARING OF RAILROADS TENDS TO EASE CORN

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—Clearing up of railroad blockade tended today to ease corn. Prices closed heavy January 1.27⅝ and May $1.24¼, with the finish as a whole unchanged to ⅛¢ down compared with 24 hours before. Oats declined ⅝@⅝¢ net. In provisions the outcome caried from a setback of 10¢ to 35¢ advance.

Foved by the prospjects of liberal receiypts hre Monday and Tuesday corn showed a downward slant almost uniformly thruout the session but selling was at no time aggressive, altho bearish sentiment was somewhat augmented by peace talk, especially in the last hour.

Oats sagged with corn. Hope of sales to the seaboard le to a temporary bulge, which was more than counteracted when no bnsiness developed. Heavier receipts of hogs weakene provisions but sharp reduction of the weekly total of hog packing led afterward to rallcis.

TRADING IN STOCKS EXCEEDINGLY LIGHT

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—Trading in stocks today was exceedingly light and narrow even for a week-end session. Two active issues—Marine Preferred and United States Steel—made almost one third of the total turnover.

Marine was heavy thruout at an extreme reaction of 2 points without recovery while steel made up its initial fractional decline on what seemed to be substantial buying.

Coppers and oils were the strongest features, gaining 1 to 3 points on reports of an early and satisfactory price adjustment by the war board.

Specialties were featured by Wilson packing at a gross gain of almost five points, much of which was later forfeited. Rails just about held their ground, with moderate pressure upon low-priced issued. Short covering contributed measurably to the firm close. Sales 230,000 shares.

Minor Changes were disclosed by the bank statement actual loans decreasing by $32,500,000, market unsettled at yesterday's average to 5¢ liwer; bulk $16.40@$16.80; light $15.90@$16.70; mixed $16.15@$16.85; heavy $16.15@$16.90; rough $16.15@$16.30; pigs $12.75@$15.40.

Cattle—Receipts 4,000; Monday 15,000; market steady! native steers $8.50@$13.85; stockers and feeders $7.00@$10.90; cows and heifers $6.00@$11.90; calves $9.00@$16.50.

Sheep—Receipts 5,000; Monday 14,000; market steady; wethers $9.85@$13.40; ewes $9.40@$12.80; lambs $14.50@$18.00.

ST. LOUIS LIVESTOCK MARKET

St. Louis, Jan. 19.—Hogs—Receipts 8,000; market steady; lights $16.25@$16.60; pigs $14.25@$15.75; mixed and butchers $16.30@$16.70; good heavy $16.60@$16.70; bulk $16.30@$16.65.

Cattle—Receipts 1,200; market steady; native beef steers $8.00@$13.50; yearling steers and heifers $7.00@$13.50; cows $5.00@$10.50; stockers and feeders $6.50@$10.00; native calves $5.75@$15.00.

Your Battery Can Freeze

—When a battery freezes it is ruined; your salvation lies in the fact that your battery is practically safe if one-half charged or over.

—Yes, your generator is designed to keep your battery full, but remember all things conspire to deplete your battery in winter, short trips, hard starting, slow driving, etc.

—Let us examine your battery, charge it if necessary, and keep it in good working order.

—We also repair and over-haul batteries, and are equipped to keep your battery in winter storage.

THE PUBLIC MUST AGAIN SAVE WATER

The water situation again is critical, and will be until there is a genuine thaw. Consumers must again use from wells and cisterns for closet flushings, bathing, etc., and otherwise practice water conservation. Offenders will be cut off. There now is but about five feet of water in the reservoir and that must be held for possible fires. I regret the action necessary, but we face cold facts.

RED CROSS SHOPS EXEMPT FROM COAL ORDER

There has been some question since the issuance of the order by Dr. Garfield fuel administrator as to the status of Red Cross shops thruout the country. The management of the local Red Cross shop has been entirely at sea in the matter. Saturday the following official notice was received from Central Division headquarters of the Red Cross in Chicago which is self-explanatory.

American Red Cross
Central Division

Chicago, Illinois.
January 18, 1918.

To All Chapters in the Central Division.

IMPORTANT

We have just received the following telegram from H. D. Gibson, General Manager, American Red Cross, Washington, D. C.

Treasury Department has ruled that Red Cross is Governmental agency and it is also charitable organization. We are advised we can continue Red Cross work in work room and elsewhere on coalless days.

This is for your information and is self-explanatory.

SOME ILLUSTRIOUS RELATIVES

Although not a particle lifted over it or vain in the least, Mrs. J. Herman is an own cousin of two very prominent men. One is Samuel Jacobs, K. C., of Montreal. He is several times a millionaire and has been elected to the dominion parliament. He was born in Lancaster, Ohio, but has spent a large part of his life in the metropolis of Canada where by strict integrity and fair dealing with all he has won a high place in financial circles. He is the first man of his race to be elected to the dominion parliament and he will honor his constituency there.

The other cousin is still more illustrious. He now goes by the noble title of Lord Reading, formerly chief justice of England and recently named ambassador to the United States from the court of St. James. In his early days he was plain Rufus Isaacs but by ability and integrity he has arisen to his present exalted position. The papers speak very highly of him as a gentleman, statesman and diplomat.

ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE STUDENT HONORED.

Marie Towle, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. E. K. Towle, Jacksonville, who is a student in the School of Fine Arts was notified this week that her still life painting "The Lacquer Box," on which she took a prize in November in the Wanamaker Competitive Exhibition of the work of American Art Students held in Philadelphia, has been sold for twenty-five dollars. This speaks very flatteringly of the quality of work being done in Art at the Woman's College and is an honor for Miss Towle.

Miss Knopf has three of her pictures in exhibition at the Chicago Art Institution with the Art Institute Alumni Exhibition being held during January, and recently attended a banquet given in honor of the opening of the exhibition.

Miss Virgin, who is also a former student of the Art Institute has two pencil portrait sketches in the exhibition.

MERRY BOBSLED RIDERS

CIRCUIT COURT IS ADJOURNED FOR TERM

Judge Smith Here Saturday to Make Final Orders—Appeals Taken in Two Railroad Cases.

Judge Smith came to Jacksonville Saturday to hear a number of motions in the circuit court and to close up the business of the November term. A considerable number of orders were entered in both common law and chancery docket. Judge Smith did not make his final order until nearly 7 o'clock, as he waited to hear the report of commissioners who were sent out in the afternoon to examine the lands belonging to the Headen estate. Orders were entered as follows:

Law Cases.

In the estate of H. L. Deppe vs Willow Creek drainage district, in which verdict was returned in favor of defendants, motion was made by the plaintiff for a new trial and was overruled. Notice of appeal was given.

In the assumpsit suit of J. E. Pires and Samuel Nunes, executors, vs American Bankers Insurance Co., demurrer was suspended as to the third plea and overruled as to the others, and leave was given the plaintiff to reply.

In the suit of John E. Cully, as administrator, vs C. & A. R. R., trespass on the case, motion by the complainant for new trial was overruled and appeal taken. This is a suit relating to the death of James Cully, formerly a member of Co. B., who was killed while on guard at the bridge at Pearl.

In the damage suit of Georgia R. Montgomery vs C. & A. R. R., in which a verdict of $3,000 was returned in behalf of the complainant, motion by the railroad for a new trial was denied. Notice of appeal was given in this case and bond fixed in the sum of $3,500.

In the assumpsit suit of James Gunn vs James Cranfield and George M. Mitchell, the time for the filing of cross bond was extended to Feb. 4.

In the suit of G. C. Claybaugh vs O. M. Powers, a confession of judgment was entered in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $5,839.

Leave was given the state's attorney to file information as to quo warranto proceedings of the people vs J. A. Moss et al. The return is to be made by Feb. 4. In this proceeding, brought by Worthington, Reeve & Green, on behalf of John Frank, it is sought to show that J. A. Moss and his associates are illegally acting as the commissioners in the Mauvaisterre Creek Drainage district.

Chancery.

The report of the trustees in the foreclosure proceeding of Harmony lodge vs J. W. Moon et al., was approved.

In the partition suit of Lida G. Farwell vs Walter M. Smith, the master's report was approved.

In the foreclosure proceeding of John S. Hackett vs Dean Wilday et al., the master's report was approved and the cause stricken.

In the partition suit of William H. Jones vs Henry Narr, et al., the master's report was approved.

In the suit of E. E. Crabtree, trustee, vs Emma D. Brown et al, brought to quiet title, the master's report was approved.

In the suit of Mabel E. Lewis vs Margaret L. Bottom, the master's report was approved.

In the foreclosure suit of Edward D. Heinl vs Lucy M. Heath, et al., the master's report was approved.

In the estate of Hugo Hemple vs Louis H. Maul, administrator, bill for specific performance, the master's report was approved and cause stricken.

In the divorce proceedings of Bertha D. Brown vs Alden Brown, the decree was granted the complainant and she was given the custody of their daughter, Betty Ann Brown. The complainant was represented by H. P. Samuell and the defendant by William Brown and W. T. Wilson.

In the partition suit of William C. Headen vs Robert H. Headen et al., the report of the commissioners, C. W. Johnson, F. L. Hairgrove and C. C. Berryman, was approved.

The same commissioners made report on the land involved in the partition suit of Robert H. Headen et al vs W. C. Headen, and this report was also approved.

In the foreclosure proceeding of Mary H. Hodgson vs James E. Barber et al., the report of the master was approved and the cause stricken.

In the foreclosure suit of Adele Armstrong vs Elizabeth Coffman et al, leave was given to complainant to withdraw tax deed.

In the suit of Mauvaisterre Drainage district vs John Frank et al, the demurrer was overruled and rule was entered against the defendant to answer by Feb. 1.

In the suit of Fletcher Hopper et al. vs John N. Ward, bill for relief, the suit was dismissed by the complainants at their cost.

In the matter of the report on trust deed for J. W. Davies et al., report of W. T. Wilson, trustee, was approved. The report indicated receipts of $129,924.21.

GOOD WORK BY FINE POINT CLUB

It should have been mentioned in the report of the Hospital Aid society recently published that the Fine Point Club has done excellent work. Members of this club made six dozen towels and two bathrobes in addition to doing other work for the society. In various ways this club has aided loyally in the good work of the hospital and the aid society.

SUMMER IN WINTER.

The sun parlors at the Alexander apartments form one of the most attractive features of the fine building. The sun parlor for each apartment is spacious and the construction makes each available for use in the coldest weather. A sun parlor warm and comfortable with the thermometer 20 below zero is something new for Jacksonville.

WAR CONFERENCE AT URBANA.

The seventeenth annual corn growers' and stockmen's convention will be held at the university of Illinois Jan. 28 to Feb. 1, in co-operation with the state council of defense. This arrangement is for the purpose of conference on various agricultural and livestock matters now of special interest because of the war. At the Friday session meat production problems will be discussed and F. E. Drury of this county will be one of those to present his experiences in hog raising. Lawrence Funk of Bloomington is another who will speak on the subject.

President—Dr. A. J. Ogram.
Vice president—Dr. W. L. Frank.
Secretary—Dr. T. G. McLinn.

WOMAN'S CLUB HELD JANUARY MEETING

H. H. Bancroft Made Address On Women's Work in War Time Theme — Red Cross Activities Are Told—Plan for Next Program.

The postponed meeting of the Jacksonville Woman's club was held Saturday afternoon with a large attendance. Mrs. Miller Weir, president of the club presided. After the formal business of the opening had passed Mrs Weir paid a beautifully phased tribute to Miss Amy Mothershead whose recent death meant the loss of an earnest helpful member.

The address of the afternoon was made by Mr. H. H. Bancroft who had "Women's Work in War Times" as his theme.

A report for the special Red Cross committee was made thru the secretary of the committee, Mrs. D. W. Reid. Some months ago the club voted $90 for the purchase of yarn and the work resulted in the making of 110 finished knitted garments. Members of the club have also served in instruction work at the Red Cross shop and have assisted in various ways. This of course is the first year that a Red Cross department of the Woman's club has been maintained and the members were greatly interested in the report presented.

The loan chest committee reported the use made of $10 passed from the club treasury to the committee and mentioned generous gifts by individual members. The work of the loan committee thru several years has been an important factor in relief work in the city. The pleasure of the program of the afternon was greatly increased by the singing of Mrs. Florence P. Hartmann whose solo was DeKoven's Recessional. Announcement was made of the February meeting of the club which will be held at the Woman's College. The program will be in charge of the music committee. Arrangements have been made for the coming of Prof. Olds who will give an address and concert program of bird music. Mrs Helen Ayers Bullard will be the accompanist.

Some paragraphs from Mr. Bancroft's excellent address are given below, relating to local affairs. Other references made in the address will be published at another date

The Bunker Hill Monument

"It is a fact that while the Bunker Hill monument was begun thru the efforts of men, it was finished thru the enterprise and patriotic energy of women. The corner stone of this monument was laid by Lafayette in 1825 but twice work was suspended because of lack of funds. In 1839 the women of Boston started a movement that grew thruout the country and resulted in the raising of $55,000, which sum completed this great monument of the Revolutionary period.

"The work of Clara Barton, the founder of the American Red Cross and the author of the American amendment adopted at the Geneva convention; the work of Mary A. Livermore, head of the sanitary commission, which organization expended $50,000,000 during the Civil war; the work of Mrs. Mathew T. Scott of Bloomington, thru whose energy and direction the continnental hall of the Daughters of the American Revolution was built in Washington, the largest and most costly monument ever erected by women in this land or any other, and the first grand monument erected to all heroes who helped gain American independence, men and women alike; the heroic character of Mrs. John A. Logan, whose husband saved southern Illinois to the Union, and at whose suggestion Gen. Logan as commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, issued the order for Decoration Day; Mrs. Ellen Hardin Walworth, one of the three founders of the society of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and Mrs. Mary A. Bickerdyke of Galesburg, known to fame as 'Mother Bickerdyke,' are among women whose work in times of war will distinguish them as long as the pages of history are read.

Mrs. Walworth's Work

"I want to speak particularly of Mrs. Ellen Hardin Walworth, who was born in Jacksonville and was the daughter of Col. John J. Hardin. She was educated by private tutors and at the Jacksonville Female academy. She was a graduate in law of the University of New York and was one of the first three women nominated and elected to a school board under the New York law admitting women as trustees. In company with Miss Eugenia Washington and Miss Mary Desha she was chiefly prominent as one of the three founders of the national society of the D. A. R. She was director general of woman's war relief in 1898 and was at the field hospital at Fortress Monroe to meet the first wounded from Santiago."

CONTRACT SENT TO COUNTY AGENT

George B. Kendall Expected to Begin Work Here Soon—Farmers' Club Wants Clover Facts.

The executive committee of the Morgan County Farmers Club held a meeting Saturday afternoon in the directors' room of the Farmers' State Bank & Trust Mo. At this time the committee approved a contract which will be made with George B. Kendall of Moorehead, Minn., to act as county agent here, and the contract will be forwarded to him. The perfecting of arrangements for the coming of Mr. Kendall to Morgan county is now but a matter of a short time and it is hoped that he can begin his work here early in the coming month.

Notices will be at once sent to all members of the club, stating that the annual dues of $10 are now due and payable to the treasurer, F. J. Blackburn. A committee including J. E. Osborne, J. W. Arnold and F. J. Blackburn was appointed to investigate the question of clover seed and to make a report to the organization. Any farmers in the county who have clover seed for sale are requested to send samples to the committee and to furnish other facts about the seed.

"SO LONG LETTY" MUSICAL COMEDY COMING MONDAY

Fuel Order is Changed and Big Attraction Will Come to the Grand Monday Night.

"So Long Letty," a typical Morosco farce with music settings, will be the attraction at the Grand theatre Monday night. Complimented with long runs on both the Pacific and Atlantic coasts before reaching here, it will be surprising if it is not greeted with the same enthusiasm shown whenever the play has been presented.

The catchy dialogue and humorous situations are more responsible for the success of the performance than the music, which is light, wholly modern and very catchy in spots. The farce is a burlesque upon trial marriage and the affinity idea. It's lesson is that while a man's own fireside might at times bore him, in the last analysis it is "home, sweet home."

Letty, a wife who cares more for the cabaret than the kitchen, who is joined for "better or for worse" to Harry Robbin, a tidy homebody, who spends his afternoons off in trimming the hedge and puttering around on the lawn. The couple live in a queer colony on a California beach, where abandoned street cars are used for homes. The next car neighbors are Grace Miller, a portly domestic person with a lisp, and her husband Harry, who runs to red neckties and poolroom cigars.

The Robbins and the Millers get an idea that they are mismated and the plot to rearrange the matrimonial alignment by way of the divorce court. The women, however, refuse to do anything blindly and demand a week try-out of the new arrangement. Tommy being bunked in the wood closet of the Miller home and Harry taking his rest in the hammock on the Robbins porch at nights. As usual the last few minutes straighten out all the kinks.

The book for "So Long Letty" was written by Mr. Morosco, the producer, and Elmer Haris, while Earl Carroll provided the music and lyrics. These are the same men who wrote "Canary Cottage" another of Mr. Morosco's successful musical plays. "A typical Morosco cast" has been assembled for the principals and there is a large chorus of California beauties.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES IN PITTSBURGH

Ray S. Seeger Dies of Pneumonia Friday — Was in Employ of Pennsylvania Railroad—Remains Will Be Brought Here for Burial.

John A. Vasconcellos received a telegram Saturday from Miss Nellie Seegar telling of the death of her brother, Ray S. Seegar which occurred in Pittsburgh, Pa., Friday. Death came as a result of an attack of pneumonia after a brief illness.

Deceased was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Cal D. Seegar and was born in this city about 22 years ago. Upon the death of his mother which occurred when he was eight years of age he went to Glenwood where he entered the Industrial school in that city.

After completing his school work he went to Rock Island where he lived with his sister and was employed for some time. Recently he went to Pittsburgh where he secured a position in the purchasing agent's office of the Pennsylvania railroad and was making good in his work.

Mr. Seegar was a young man of much promise and his death just at the threshhold of a life brilliant opportunity will bring sadness to many hearts.

He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Daisy Everhart of Rock Island and Miss Nellie Seegar of this city who was with him when death came. Funeral services will be held in Pittsburgh and she will leave that city Sunday evening with the remains. It is expected that she will reach here Tuesday morning. The body will be taken direct to Diamond Grove cemetery where brief services will be held and interment made.

NEW CAR SERVICE RULES TOMORROW

Shippers Will Find it Expensive to Hold Cars More Than Two Days

A new ruling with reference to car service goes into effect tomorrow and is of great interest to all shippers in car load lots The ruling will have the greatest effect on coal shipments. Under the new rules after a car is received here the consignee has 48 hours during which to unload the car. The charge for the first day after the 48 hours is $3, and this charge increases at the rate of $1 a day until the tenth day is reached. The charges after that time are $10 a day.

Under the former rule the first day after the expiration of the 48 hour period cost consignees $2 and the maximum after a period of several days was $5 per day. The order of course is made with the expectation of speeding up the unloading of cars and it will certainly have that effect, for to pay car service to the amount provided in the new order for a period of days would more than wipe out all the profits in the average business. For example, under the present rule, if a coal dealer receives a car and keeps it on the track for 5 days his service bill will be $12. The first two days are free, the third the cost would be $3, the fourth $4 and the fifth $5.

EMPTY RESERVOIR NOW CONFRONTS CITY

Every Consumer Must Help To Save Water—Crisis is at Hand

An empty reservoir tells the story of the present Jacksonville water situation. Saturday afternoon Commissioner Vasconcellos and Supt. Cobb had a hole cut in the ice at the west side reservoir in order to get an accurate measurement of the water and it was found that the reservoir was empty.

This means that the city was 400,000 or 500,000 gallons worse off in the matter of supply last night than had been true at any time recently It means also that if a big fire breaks out, requiring a large amount of water, that the only pressure that can be furnished will be from the north side station.

The pumps at that station are now furnishing only about 500,000 gallons a day, which is less than half of the daily normal consumption. There is no water available from Mauvaisterre creek, Morgan lake, Ashelby's pond or any other source. The only recourse is for private consumers to economize still further and cut down the amount of water they are using it seemingly cannot be many days until a change in temperature comes and with it a thaw. Warmer weather would immediately result in water in the creek and lake and it would be possible then to pump into the reservoir.

When the shortage was most acute several weeks ago there was enough water in the reservoir at Jacksonville state hospital to make it possible for some water to be pumped from that source into the mains if an emergency should arise. Now that would not be possible because the supply at the hospital is low.

Com. Vasconcellos yesterday notified the board of education that water must be shut off from the schools. He notified various houses in the business district that less water must be used and now this general appeal is made for each and every consumer to cut down the amount being used.

WARNING

Water consumers must use less water if the city averts real calamity. The reservoir is empty and the fire danger great. Cut down use or all water must be shut off.

ALEXANDER RED CROSS GAVE ENTERTAINMENT

The Alexander Auxiliary of the Red Cross gave a box supper and entertainment in the school house Saturday evening which was largely attended. Among the amusements offered for the evening was an old fashioned spelling match in which Miss Esther Black spelled everybody down and won a box of stationery. Miss Georgia Robins won a box of candy as the most popular young lady. Claude Keenan won a pie as the prize for being the ugliest man present. Mr. Keenan proved that beauty is only skin deep when he donated it back to the auxiliary to be auctioned off. It was purchased by Mrs. Frank Kaiser for $3. The auctioning of the boxes brought about $60 and pies and other eatables also were auctioned and the auxiliary realized about $90 from the venture.
